Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 18.—Adams county is making rapid strides in its effort to sell a million dollars worth of Liberty bonds of the second issue. The cause is helped along by the soldiers in camp, many of them taking a quota of Queen Esther in full costume sometime during the winter season, and music loving people of the town are invited to join the society and assist in making it a success.

Trolley Car and Auto Kill Does at Caledonia

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 18.—A Chambersburg and Greencastle trolley car killed a deer that ran upon the track at Caledonia during the night. It was a young doe. Both front legs were cut off and the doe was killed. Monday morning a dead doe was found at the Chambersburg and Greencastle platform at Caledonia. It evidently had been struck by a speeding automobile, had struggled to the station and there died.

GETTYSBURG CURFEW WHISTLE

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 18.—Last night the curfew whistle at the furniture factory blew at 9 o'clock and Gettysburg had its first experience with the new curfew law. Most of the girls under sixteen and the boys under sixteen were on the streets before 9 o'clock, but at the first sound of the whistle there was a scramble to get under cover of the parental roof among those who were out, and in a few minutes the streets were deserted of those under the ages effected by the new ordinance.

SOLDIERS MAY GO SOUTH

Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 18.—Soldiers in the big camp here are working up rumors that have been going the rounds that they are to be taken from here and sent to camps in the South for the winter. The rumors have been coming thick and fast and the men are anxiously waiting for verification and wondering where they will go. No official orders have yet been received.

ROBBERY THIRD TIME

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 18.—Thieves entered the premises of Ira Snowberger, Wayne Heights, for the third time in as many years, and robbed his cellar of large potatoes and other things. The third robbery occurred early yesterday morning, when they entered Mr. Snowberger's cellar and took along with them a can of lard, a lot of sauerkraut and a large quantity of potatoes.

STUDENTS' ANNUAL OUTING

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 18.—Students of the Waynesboro Business College took their annual outing in the Blue Ridge Mountains yesterday afternoon, and spent the time hunting chestnuts in the vicinity of the Buena Vista Springs Hotel. Although the blight has killed most all of the trees in that neighborhood, there were a number of small trees quite full of the nuts and a large quantity were gathered. There were twenty-eight students in the party.

WEST SHORE NEWS

CONSERVATION OF FOOD IN HALLOWE'EN OBSERVANCE

Prof. Fred V. Rockey, Principal of Camp Hill Schools, Issues Appeal to Pupils and Parents on Subject of Waste

Teachers of West Shore schools to-morrow will tell students how they can do their bit in winning the war with Germany by refraining from throwing corn and other vegetables during the celebration of Halloween.

Prof. Fred V. Rockey, principal of Camp Hill, was the only school head who was able to announce his intention to observe Halloween without using any of our foodstuffs during this Halloween season. I know that it will go pretty hard to have to observe Halloween without throwing corn when you consider that many a soldier fighting for you would give almost anything for the corn you are heedlessly throwing away. It may not seem so hard after all.

In celebrating this Halloween do not injure your neighbors crops or waste them carelessly. In this way, you boys and girls will be doing your bit just as much as though carrying a gun.

The move has been approved universally all over the West Shore. Officials of all the boroughs have promised to arrest all boys seen destroying or even throwing corn or other crops. Boys and girls in the High School have been asked to assist in this move by explaining individually to the younger school children who are not old enough to realize what it means.

The move is getting wide circulation and ministers of the churches are considering announcing it from the pulpits at the Sunday services this week. In this way it is hoped to reach the ears of the parents, who in some cases do not think of it. Pupils of the schools are looking forward to the talks by their teachers to-morrow afternoon. They are eager to see what the observation of "Conservation of Food Day" will bring forth.

This Army will eat 13,350,000 pounds of beef a month; 1,375,000 pounds of corn and 2,266,000 pounds of hard tack. They will also consume 14,830,000 pounds of potatoes monthly and over 3,000,000 pounds of other foodstuffs. And these items

GREEN TOMATOES ARE DELICIOUS

Markets in North Have Large Supply; Receipts For Their Use

Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.—Conditions are peculiarly favorable at the present time for families to add to their supply of winter delicacies by pickling green tomatoes, which are now available in large quantities and at reasonable prices in many markets. Reports to the Bureau of Markets of the United States Department of Agriculture show that heavy supplies of green tomatoes are now coming to many markets, especially in the northern states. When green tomatoes are abundant and cheap is the time for making pickles. In a separate vessel bring cucumbers, 6 large red peppers, 1/2 peck of yellow string beans.

Place in a brine made by dissolving 1 pound of salt in 5 pints of water and set over night. In the morning bring the brine, with the vegetables still in it, to a boil and keep boiling a few minutes.

In a separate vessel bring 1 gallon of cider vinegar to a boil. With a little water make a paste of 1/2 pound of ground mustard, 1/4 ounce of turmeric, 1 cup of brown sugar, 2 level tablespoons of whole allspice, 1 level tablespoonful of whole cloves, 1 level tablespoonful of ground cayenne pepper.

Boil all together for 15 minutes or until the vegetables are tender, stirring often to prevent scorching. Put into jars and seal while hot.

Put this paste, with a half-ounce of celery seed, in the vinegar and boil until the mustard is dissolved. Now take the vegetables up, drain off the brine, put the vegetables in another saucepan, and pour the boiling vinegar mixture cup over night. In the morning put all in a bag and drain 24 hours. After draining add 1 pint of white mustard seed. In a separate vessel bring 1 gallon of vinegar with 1/2 pound of brown sugar. When boiling hot, pour over the chopped vegetables. Put all on a fire and cook about 15 minutes. Put in jars and seal while hot.

Green Tomato Pickle—Prepare 4 small onions and 4 green peppers. Chop fine, put into enameled pan, sprinkle well with salt and let stand over night. In the morning drain off the brine from the vegetables. In a separate vessel put 1 quart of vinegar, 1 level tablespoonful of mustard seed, 1 level tablespoonful of celery seed, 1 level tablespoonful of cloves, 1 level tablespoonful of allspice, 1 level tablespoonful of cinnamon, 1/2 cup of salt.

Bring to a boil and add vegetables. Cook 20 minutes after the pickle begins to boil. Fill jars and seal while hot.

Green Tomato Picalilli—Chop up 1 peck of green tomatoes and 8 large onions. Add 1 cup of salt and let stand over night. In the morning drain thoroughly and add 2 quarts of water.

IT'S HARD TO LOOK PLEASANT

William Pentz, of Scotland, Out-With Interesting Facts

REGAINS HEALTH AND VIGOR

"It's mighty hard to look pleasant when you feel all in," said William Pentz, of Scotland, near Chambersburg, in a statement he made last week to the Tonic man. Mr. Pentz is the son of the proprietor of a general merchandise store at Scotland and is very well known in this community.

"For several months I had not been myself," said Mr. Pentz. "I was suffering from stomach trouble, nervousness and indigestion. I felt my stomach was not doing right. I had indigestion and heartburn in the worst form. My stomach seemed to be just worn out with poisons and undigested food. I had no appetite and my condition was continually wearing on my nerves. Believe me I was getting to feel on the brink.

"I had heard a lot about Tonic so I decided to try it. It helped me right from the start. In less than no time my stomach came around into good shape, my appetite came back and my nerves quieted down. It's easy to be pleasant to customers now, because I feel like a new man. Tonic is a marvel and I hope any of my friends who have stomach trouble will profit by my experience and try it."

Tonic, the famous reconstructive tonic, is now being introduced here at Gorgas' Drug Store, who have secured the exclusive sale of this master medicine in Harrisburg.

Tonic is also sold at the Gorgas Drug Store in the P. R. R. Station; in Carlisle at W. G. Stephens' Pharmacy; Elizabethtown, Albert W. Cain; Greencastle, Charles B. Carl; Middletown, Colin S. Few's Pharmacy; Waynesboro, Clarence Croft's Pharmacy; Mechanicsburg, H. F. Brunhouse.—Adv.

Spiremanstown, Pa., Oct. 18.—Delegates from here, who will attend the third annual convention of the Mechanicsburg District Sabbath Episcopal Church, at Mechanicsburg, on Thursday, are: Mrs. J. W. Gardner, Beamer and Mrs. George Danner, of the United Brethren Church, and Mrs. Jacob Walls and Mrs. Benjamin Stansfield, of the Bethel Church of God.

RUN ON PENNIES

Harrisburg tobacco stores are on the anxious seat. The shortage of pennies at the local banking institutions has set donees aflutter for days ago the price of cigars and cigarettes advanced one or two cents. This necessitated a reduction of the pennies for the consumers. The banks were besieged until the supply was exhausted. The banks soon got in touch with the mint at Philadelphia, and now the supply of pennies is nearly normal.
