NEXT SELECTED MEN TO GO NOVEMBER 2

Camp Meade. The board also has a large number of men whose claims were acted on at the district board to-day. If only a small majority of the names before the district board are certified Steelton will have the required quota ready for November 2.

The Paxtang board is in still better shape. This board has already sent 110 men to camp. This is sixty per cent of the required number. The board has over twenty names ready for service and over 110 claims before the district board. These claims were acted on late this afternoon. There are seven names in this district who will be sent away on October 27.

The Elizabethtown board received the certification of a large number of men from the district board to-day. As a result there will be no difficulty in this district in securing the forty men who will leave on November 2. There are a very few negroes there.

To-day the district board acted on the claims of men from York county Nos. 1 and 2; Cumberland Nos. 1 and 2; Dauphin Nos. 1 and 2. York county No. 3 proved to be the largest acted on. There were over 120 men certified to the upper board from this district, and nearly all claimed exemption. Some of the claims had to be sent back for more information, while the larger number of them were turned down. The claims of Dauphin county were acted on late this afternoon, and the results could not be obtained.

The Face That Fascinated Russia's Noblewomen THROUGH the power of his hypnotic eyes—which compelled his victims to abject obedience—this uncouth Siberian peasant rose to be the "Black Czar" of Russia. RASPUTIN Saint or Devil? How he did it is revealed in a startlingly frank story of his life by the Princess Catherine Radziwill Princess Radziwill's position in the inner circles of the Russian nobility made her the confidante of many of Rasputin's victims.
