EARLY MORNING BRIDAL IN THE CATHEDRAL

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES A. DE LONE

Promptly at 6 o'clock this morning, in St. Patrick's Cathedral, State street, the Rev. Thomas B. Johnson united in marriage Miss Marie Kathryn Dougherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dougherty, 767 South Nineteenth street, and Charles Aloysius DeLone, of this city, in the presence of a large gathering of their friends. The bride was attired in a modish traveling suit of brown velours with picture hat to match, taupe fox furs and a corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses. Miss Margaretta G. Dougherty was maid of honor for her sister, wearing a blue broadcloth costume, black velvet hat and a corsage bouquet of pink roses. William F. Sheridan was best man.

BETROTHAL CARD HIDDEN IN FAVORS

Announcement of Miss Sherman to Chicago Man at Informal Party

Miss Almada Schwartz was hostess at an informal party, suggestive of the Halloween season, at her home, Peffer and Seventh street. Old-fashioned Halloween games, music and a cleverly-appointed supper made the evening enjoyable.

The guests were much surprised to find the betrothal cards of Miss Rose Sherman and Louis Weinberger concealed among the corn in the tiny varicolored basket favors. The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Sherman, of 652 Peffer street, and a general favorite. She is a graduate of the Central High School, class of 1912, and a talented musician, having studied at the Conservatory of Music and interested in the War Relief and Red Cross work. She is an active member of the auxiliary of the Y. M. H. A. as well as various charity organizations. Her engagement comes as a surprise to her host of friends, and many prenuptial events are being arranged for her.

PRINCIPALS IN MARKET SQUARE ORGAN RECITAL

MRS. JOHN R. HENRY

MRS. ROBERT B. REEVES

Muscle lovers are much interested in the organ recital to be given this evening in the Market Square Presbyterian Church at 8 o'clock because the newly built and enlarged organ will be used for the first time in this way and an opportunity given to test it to the full. Mrs. John R. Henry, the organist, will be assisted by Mrs. Robert B. Reeves, contralto, wife of the new secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who will make her first public appearance in recital in this city. Mrs. Reeves, a contralto of unusual power, studied in New York with Dr. Carl Duft and A. Y. Cornell, of Carnegie Hall, for the past five and one-half years, appearing in oratorios and concert many times. She was a member of the quartet of the Church of the Pilgrims, Brooklyn, and contralto soloist of the First Presbyterian Church, of Albany, N. Y., which number among its members, George Whitman and Dr. Finley. To-night's program includes: "Fantasia in G Major," Bach; "Allegretto in B Minor," Gullmatt; "Meldy for the Bells of Beorghall Church," Sibelin; contralto solo, "The Fall of Jerusalem," (recitative and aria), M. Blument; "Finlandia," Sibelius; (a) "The Swan," Stebbins; (b) "Where Dusk Gathers Dew," Sibelius; (a) "The Swan," Stebbins;
