Experiences in War Zone officers of either the Regulars, the Guard or the National Army are held to be equally eligible for temporary appointment or promotion, which must be "based solely on demonstrated fitness without regard to seniority."

The new regulations make officers interchangeable within their own arms and grades in the service and the list of reserve corps, second lieutenants of the Regular Army is also made available for appointment of men in that grade to the other branches. Stress is laid upon the destrability of promoting men within the unit in which a vacancy occurs where this is advisable. In naming second lieutenants, commanders may select noncommissioned officers or officers of the reserve corps as they deem best.

Experiences in War Zone
A first-hand description of war zone activities will be given by Processor Albert P. Fitch, of Amherst College, who is to lecture in Fahnes-cok Hall next Tuesday evening. Dr. Fitch has had unusual opportunities to study campse and methors of the Allies, and through special courtesy, was allowed to visit the devastated zones behind the British and French battlefronts. Red Cross workers are earnestly requested to be present. The lecture will be of especial interest to schoolchildren, although the service of the allies, and through special value of the college. Greece's Ex-King Under

FRIDAY EVENING,

Paris, Oct. 19 .- A Zurich dispatch to the Matin says the old wound of former King Constantine of Greece has reopened and that an operation was performed in Zurich yesterday. His condition is said to be most grave.

Two operations were performed on Constantine in 1915, the first not having resulted in healing of the wound, and for a time his life was despaired of. Reports were curren at the time that he had been stabbed but they were denied and it was said he was suffering from pleurisy.
