

TIMELY NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

CUMBERLAND VALLEY CEREMONY BY GROOM'S FATHER

Miss Hazel Kisner Becomes Bride of Lieutenant H. A. Fasick, at Carlisle

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 22.—In one of the most attractive ceremonies solemnized here in recent years, Miss Hazel Kisner, of Carlisle, and Lieutenant Harold A. Fasick, of the Ordnance Department, Washington, D. C., were married in the Allison Methodist Church here on Saturday evening.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, after which she left on a wedding tour.

Dickinson Endowment Fund Canvass Starts Tomorrow

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 22.—In preparation for the Dickinson endowment fund canvass which will be formally opened this week, Carlisle ministers exchanged pulpits yesterday and coupled their pleas for Liberty Bond subscriptions with statements urging a liberal response to the college canvassers.

RED CROSS KITS FOR SOLDIERS

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Carlisle Red Cross chapter will furnish 250 special Christmas kits for all soldiers and sailors from this section, it was announced today.

PASSENGER TRAIN KILLS JERE ROWE

Waynesboro Man Is Struck While Walking on Track After Leaving Work

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 22.—Jere Rowe, aged 48 years, a resident of Waynesboro, was struck and instantly killed by a passenger train on the Western Maryland railroad on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Rowe, who was a little deaf, left the boiler shop of Frick Company, where he was employed, and was walking down the track. He did not notice the fast approaching train and was tossed a distance of thirty feet.

Mr. Rowe's death makes the third one in his family by violence. His brother-in-law, John Wade, was killed at the Second street crossing here ten years ago, when the team he was driving was struck by a Western Maryland freight train.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, after which she left on a wedding tour.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 22.—Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Charles Edward Lohr and Miss Susie Catherine Lovell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lovell, Washington, at Grace Reformed parsonage.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS MEETS

Enola, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Ruth and Naomi class of the Methodist Sunday school held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. William Murphy, 1507 Broadway, on Friday evening.

Eat Potatoes and Save Wheat This Week

Eat potatoes and save bread this week. That is the request by Food Administrator Hoover.

FATHERS AND SONS, Mothers and Daughters Will Be Given Honors

Fathers and sons in the congregation of Epworth Methodist Church will be specially honored Sunday, November 11, with special services and a banquet on the following Thursday.

FORMER MINISTER PREACHES

Mechanicsville, Pa., Oct. 22.—An able and spirited sermon was delivered yesterday morning in the Methodist Episcopal Church by the Rev. E. A. Pyles, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, at Harrisburg.

EX-JUDGE SAVAGE HURT

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 22.—Ex-Judge C. R. Savage, wife and son, Preston, were badly injured yesterday afternoon near Hogestown, where their automobile was struck by a motor-truck going towards Harrisburg.

DILLSBURG MERCHANTS OFFER PRIZES FOR FARMERS' DAY

Best Fruits and Garden and Farm Products Will Be On Exhibition at Stores of Borough Next Saturday

Dillsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Farmers' Day committee announces the following prizes for the best fruits and garden and farm products exhibited on October 27.

The Dillsburg National Bank offers for the best six ears of corn, Yellow Dent, first prize $2; second prize $1. For the best half bushel of potatoes, first prize $2, second prize $1.

W. H. Sidle offers for the best bushel of Paradise apples, an automobile inner tube; five gallons of gasoline to the person purchasing gasoline nearest a fixed time on Farmers' Day.

D. W. Yeager offers for the best loaf of homemade bread, $1.50; for the best cake, $1.50; second prize, $1. Charles Frosser offers to the person entering his barber shop at a time stipulated, $2.

M. W. Britcher offers twenty-five pounds stock food for the heaviest carter, an umbrella; for the three largest turnips, $2 worth merchandise; for the four largest single-yoked hens' eggs, a carpet sweeper.

W. S. Sheffer offers for the largest head of cabbage, first prize one eighth sack flour; for the heaviest sack flour, for the best 2-quart jar of peaches, one aluminum percolator.

J. A. Smith and Company offers for the best plate of six home-raised white onions, one lantern; for the best plate of six Smokehouse apples, one large white enamel bucket.

S. M. Ensminger offers $1 for the best plate of paradise apples; $1 for the best plate of five Pound Imperial apples, first prize $2, second prize $1.50.

The Dillsburg Hardware Company offers for the heaviest head of cabbage, one parlor stand, and second prize, one aluminum water bucket; third prize, one flashlight; third prize, one flashlight.

Marysville, Pa., Oct. 22.—In accordance with the custom of other ministers of the Central Pennsylvania conference, the Rev. S. B. Bidlack, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, exchanged pulpits with another minister of the same denomination on Sunday.

The Dilworth Hardware Company offers for the heaviest head of cabbage, one parlor stand, and second prize, one aluminum water bucket; third prize, one flashlight; third prize, one flashlight.

Mechanicsville, Pa., Oct. 22.—An able and spirited sermon was delivered yesterday morning in the Methodist Episcopal Church by the Rev. E. A. Pyles, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, at Harrisburg.

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 22.—Ex-Judge C. R. Savage, wife and son, Preston, were badly injured yesterday afternoon near Hogestown, where their automobile was struck by a motor-truck going towards Harrisburg.

William Zetter spent several days at Hershey visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bomgardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sewell, of Cincinnati, Ohio, spent a few days with John Greenawalt and Miss Mary Greenawalt.

Harry R. Laucks spent Thursday at Lancaster.

Mrs. Mollie Jacobs of York, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ella Markel.

WEST SHORE NEWS

ROBBERS CHASED AT ENOLA HOMES

Six Attempts to Enter Dwellings in Town During Saturday Night

Enola, Pa., Oct. 22.—Citizens of Enola are up in arms about the numerous attempts at robbery over the weekend. Saturday night no less than six attempts were made to enter various homes in different sections of the town.

Mrs. J. C. Sweger, of Marysville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Sweeney, at Conneville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beers have returned to their Marysville home after attending a water company convention at Atlantic City last week.

ENOLA FIREMEN'S FAIR Enola, Pa., Oct. 22.—The annual firemen's fair of the Enola Fire Company, No. 1, will open this evening in the hosehouse in Altoona avenue and continue throughout the week.

Marysville, Pa., Oct. 22.—With its capacity doubled by the removal of its plant to the new factory in Cameron street from the Lincoln street Municipal building and with the trade booming, the Unrivaled Hosiery Company of this place is finding it difficult to secure enough operatives.

RECEPTION TO FRESHMEN Elizabethville, Pa., Oct. 22.—The senior and junior classes of the Elizabethville High School held their annual reception in honor of the Freshman class on Friday evening last in the High School Auditorium.

BOY SCOUTS AID IN GRAIN SAVING

West Shore Troops Endorse Movement to Prevent Waste and Property Damage

The move to refrain from throwing corn or grain on Halloween and to celebrate the day without property damage has now been endorsed by schoolchildren and parents on the West Shore.

Boy Scouts Active The Lemoyne Troop, said this morning that the boys were very enthusiastic over the move and that although many parties will be held on that night which the boys will likely attend, there would be a few scouts who would be able to follow out instructions.

Two New Yard Crews Marysville, Pa., Oct. 22.—More business than at any time in its history is now being done in the local preference freight yards of the Pennsylvania railroad.

RECEPTION TO FRESHMEN Elizabethville, Pa., Oct. 22.—The senior and junior classes of the Elizabethville High School held their annual reception in honor of the Freshman class on Friday evening last in the High School Auditorium.

RECEPTION TO FRESHMEN Elizabethville, Pa., Oct. 22.—The senior and junior classes of the Elizabethville High School held their annual reception in honor of the Freshman class on Friday evening last in the High School Auditorium.

RECEPTION TO FRESHMEN Elizabethville, Pa., Oct. 22.—The senior and junior classes of the Elizabethville High School held their annual reception in honor of the Freshman class on Friday evening last in the High School Auditorium.

RECEPTION TO FRESHMEN Elizabethville, Pa., Oct. 22.—The senior and junior classes of the Elizabethville High School held their annual reception in honor of the Freshman class on Friday evening last in the High School Auditorium.

ELEVEN STARS IN SERVICE FLAG

Reformed Sunday School at Hummelstown Honors Soldier Members

Hummelstown, Pa., Oct. 22.—A service flag containing eleven stars was presented to the Reformed Sunday school at their Rally Day exercises yesterday.

VISITING MINISTERS PREACH Enola, Pa., Oct. 22.—Out-of-town ministers occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church, the Rev. F. L. Kerr, of Lebanon, preached at the Reformed church while the Rev. T. H. Matternes, pastor, preached at Beaver Springs.

At the Methodist church, the Rev. J. E. Breneman, of Camp Hill, had charge of the morning service and the Rev. Dr. Lloyd, in the evening.

At the Methodist church, the Rev. J. E. Breneman, of Camp Hill, had charge of the morning service and the Rev. Dr. Lloyd, in the evening.

At the Methodist church, the Rev. J. E. Breneman, of Camp Hill, had charge of the morning service and the Rev. Dr. Lloyd, in the evening.

At the Methodist church, the Rev. J. E. Breneman, of Camp Hill, had charge of the morning service and the Rev. Dr. Lloyd, in the evening.

At the Methodist church, the Rev. J. E. Breneman, of Camp Hill, had charge of the morning service and the Rev. Dr. Lloyd, in the evening.

Let us glove you with a pair of these before-the-war kind of Gray Mocha Gloves At $2.50

Advertisement for 'From Czar to Moujik' featuring a portrait of Rasputin and text describing the life of Princess Catherine Radziwill. The text includes 'Practically every person in the Russian Empire came under the sway of the Black Monk. Fortune followed his smile—death his frown.' and 'RASPUTIN Devil or Saint? By the Russian Princess Catherine Radziwill'.

Advertisement for 'New Universities Dictionary' featuring a coupon and text: 'How to Get It For the Mere Nominal Cost of Manufacture and Distribution 1 Coupon 98c and secure this NEW authentic Dictionary, bound in real flexible leather, illustrated with full pages in color and duotone 1300 pages.' It also includes a table for ordering: 'MAIL ORDERS WILL BE FILLED' and 'Add for Postage: Up to 150 miles... 47c, Up to 400 miles... 10c, Up to 1000 miles... 20c'.