

SMOKES BIG THINGS IN LIFE OF U. S. SOLDIERS

Third Artillery Chaplain Says Cigarets Aid Him in His Work

The Rev. Walter J. Fornes, chaplain of the Third Artillery, knows what a smoke means to a soldier. He says:

Smokes are the big things in a soldier's life. It kept me awake nights trying to figure how to obtain 30,000 cigarettes of one particular brand every three days, not to mention the many other brands required. Smokes are a real need, the soldier evidently finds.

Chaplains, it may be said, do more than administer spiritually to the enlisted men. They are in charge of the regiment's post exchange and charged with caring for the physical comforts of the men.

The sending of smokes to the soldiers and sailors is endorsed by the national, states, naval and military authorities. In fact there is a national organization, bearing the authorization of the Secretary of War and Navy, collecting a general fund for this purpose.

ANNEXATION OF WEST SHORE DIES

Political affairs in Germany are settling again with the return of the German Emperor to Berlin. All parties seem determined that Chancellor Michaelis must go, and it is hardly probable that the Emperor will be willing to oppose this agitation very long.

Opposition of Majority of Towns Seems to Have Paralyzed Proposition

The annexation of the West Shore to Harrisburg which about a month ago was being agitated in every town on the west side of the river has almost been forgotten.

In Lemoyne and Wormleysburg, where the plan was favored by many taxpayers, the proposition has ceased to be the subject of discussion. Enola, Midway, West Fairview, New Cumberland and Camp Hill practically killed the proposition when it came before taxpayers at mass meetings held in each of the towns.

A petition was circulated in Lemoyne and signed by a large percentage of taxpayers and was to have been presented to the West Shore Firemen's Union, which organization inaugurated the move.
