the Union station to-day when members of the canteen committee distributed apples and pretzels to a trainload of troops from Fort Niagara, bound for Spartanburg, South. Carolina. "The Kalser's Undertakers," as they termed themselves, gave rousing cheers for the Harrisburg Red Cross Chapter. They stated that although they stopped several times in large cities, Harrisburg was the first city to welcome them with canteen committees. Postal cards and pencils were distributed among the men and after they had written to their dear ones, the notes were mailed by the Red Cross workers. Prominent among the women who helped to cheer the soldiers were these:

Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert, Mrs. Ross Hickok, Mrs. Phil. Meredith, Mrs. J. D. Hawkins, Mrs. J. Miley Jones, Miss Julia Stamm, Miss Katharine Gorgas, Mrs. John A. Plank, Mrs. V. L. Hummel and Miss Mary C. Hiester. members of the canteen committee

A complete change of program takes place at the Majestic to-day.

The vaudeville bill consists of five good Keith acts, Majestic chief of which is a musical commedita, entitled "Mammy's Dream," with eight people (all girls). Each one introduces a specialty of some sort. The production is been tead, and has sufficient merit to please a majestical vaudeville and the sufficient was to be such a stream of the sum of th

Zole is a light-hearted bride, whose yearnings for suppers and theaters leads her uncompromising young husband to abandon her. Her scheme to get him back furnishes the situations around which the comedy revolves. After he has been away for some months, Zole causes his return with an announcement that a baby boy has come to the household. There is no such thing, but Zole proposes to get one from a children's home. The husband gets home sooner than is expected, and the many complications that arise cause all the fun. It is a sweet, wholesome comedy and is certain to furnish delightful entertain-

WAS MISERABLE FOR MONTHS

Could Hardly Work

says Mrs. Carrie Polston, 139½ Adams street, Steelton. "For months I was miserable with nervousness, had severe pains in my back and head. My stomach was bad and I got but little nourishment from the little food I was able to eat. I could hardly do my work, my back gave me so much trouble that I could hardly get any sleep at night, so I was just about worn out. I took a lot of medicine but could not get well. "After reading the Sanpan testimonials for some time, I concluded it might help me, and after taking it a short time I noticed an improvement and now am completely well. "Nerves are fine, headaches and tackache gone, sleep well, stomach working good and am feeling fine. "Candidly, I am surprised at the way it fixed me up."

Sanpan is being personally introduced at Keller's Drug Store. 465

Central High Teachers to Engage in Debates

At a recent meeting of the Central high school faculty plans were discussed for holding debates on pedagogical subjects. No definite arrangement was made, it was stated, however, for having the first one.

It is probable that a plan will be followed to have two formal briefs, on each side, on the topic selected. After the presentation of these the meeting will be made one for general discussion. The faculty also decided to continue the system of marking now in use for the present, at least.
