"I SUFFERED AND SUFFERED NOW I'M WELL"

"I suffered and suffered from a severe form of stomach trouble," says Mrs. J. R. Willets, wife of Detective Willets, who lives at 531 Thomas street, York, "and although I doctored for it an awful lot I could not get any relief until Tanlac drove away my trouble. Whenever my stomach got real empty gas would start to form and it would press up around my heart and cause me great distress and discomfort. It would even wake me up in the night and many a time already I have had to get up and go and eat a cracker or something to get relief for if I ate something it always gave me temporary relief. I suffered from awful dizzy headaches, too, which were so bad that I could hardly stand up and often my stomach would get so sore that I could scarcely walk for the pain. I tried all sorts of prescriptions, sometimes I would have to get medicine several times a week, but nothing helped me until I began taking Tanlac and then I began to feel better right away. I had been reading about Tanlac in the papers for a long time but I never got aroused to buying it until one day I had an extra bad spell and I just waltzed down to the drug store and got a bottle and I am glad I did for it has certainly done me an awful lot of good. Before I felt so miserable that I simply couldn't eat, laugh or talk, but now my appetite is fine and I feel well and happy all the time. Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic, is now being introduced here at Gorgas' Drug Store, who have secured the exclusive sale of this master medicine in Harrisburg. Tanlac is also sold at the Gorgas Drug Store in P. R. Station, in Carlisle at W. G. Stephens' Pharmacy; Elizabethtown, Albert W. Cain; Greencastle, Charles B. Carl; Middletown, Colin S. Few's Pharmacy; Waynesboro, Clarence Grotz's Pharmacy; Mechanicsburg, H. F. Brunhouse.—Adv.

FRANKLIN COUNTY

SWEEP BY STORM

Crops, Fences and Bridges Destroyed; Buildings Damaged by Wind and Rain

Waynesboro, Pa., Oct. 25.—Franklin county was visited by a terrific wind and rainstorm Tuesday night, and considerable damage was done to property. In Waynesboro the north and east gable ends of the Franklin Clugston house, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strauss, of Baltimore, were blown in, and the rain that poured in did much damage to furniture and interior decorations. Other sections of town were also hard hit. Plate glass windows in many instances being broken in several residences and stores. Harry Mikeseil had two large plate glass windows broken at his store. Large trees were blown down and slate roofing badly damaged. Sewers were clogged and the rushing waters swept through the streets like white water. In the country the streams were swollen and overflowed their banks, carrying away small buildings, fences, bridges and large advertising signs belonging to Waynesboro merchants. Wheat that was up and a large quantity of chickens were uprooted and washed into the streams. Corn in the shocks on several farms was washed into the creeks or streams. Hundreds of chickens were drowned after the wind had blown off the roofs of chickenhouses. The country roads, train and trolley tracks, in a number of places between Waynesboro and Chambersburg, were covered with water from six inches to over three and one-half feet deep. The roof on the bungalow of B. R. Barlow, near Waynesboro, was blown off; roof blown off residence of Benjamin Summers, Quincy, ornamental shade trees uprooted at the Quincy Orphanage; telephone pole knocked down against the residence of J. E. Phillips, and a large hole blown in the roof; doors blown off the warehouse of B. R. Summers; roof blown off residence of Abram Kutz; large trees throughout the town uprooted; roof blown off of residence of Samuel Baker. At Pen Mar, the first snow of the season fell at 11:45 a. m. and some portions of the roofs and ground were covered for a short time with the large flakes. At Edgemont, just two miles farther west, hail fell in quantities and the roofs of buildings were knocked from the trees.

COMFORT FOR SOLDIERS Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 25.—The different restrooms and recreation facilities during their stay in the months here have been thoroughly appreciated by them. At the request of the War Council many of the boys have written letters expressing their appreciation of the benefits they have derived from them and all were liberal in their expressions of the good that has been done.

DEER HUNTERS' LODGE BURNED Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 25.—The club house of the Arentsville Deer Hunters' Club, with all the contents that are left in the building from one season to another, was destroyed by fire last evening during the past week. The place was alright on Sunday when the members went to their grounds to look over the building but several days later when telephone wires were strung up the building was in ruins. That it was deliberately set on fire is the belief of the members.

SHORTAGE AT GETTYSBURG Gettysburg, Pa., Oct. 25.—Shortage of sugar is keenly felt by merchants and citizens. While the amount that the person could purchase has not been limited for some time the situation has not been so acute as during this week. With five pounds as the limit of one purchase, it was cut this week to two pounds, and there were times when some of the merchants were not able to supply their trade at all.
