Pennsylvanians in the military service at Fort Oglethorpe and Camp Hancock are well housed, well fed and their health is very efficiently safeguarded by modern sanitation.

This reassuring report is made by T. De Witt Cuyler, director of the Sanitation, Medicine and Red Cross Department of the Pennsylvania Committee of Public Safety. Mr. Cuyler, who has just completed a personal inspection of these camps, found conditions most satisfactory and so states in reporting to the Safety Committee.

The Fort Oglethorpe camp, at Chickamauga, includes an officers' training camp of 4,000 men of whom about 50 per cent are Pennsylvanians. These men impressed Mr. Cuyler as being high class and of more mature age than the men in the previous training camps. They are rated as most earnest students for commissions by Colonel Slocum, of the Thirteenth Cavalry, who is in command.

NEW OFFICIAL IS UP TO STATE IS KNOWN HERE

October 23 is as follows:

Dear Sir:

The whole West Shore is keenly interested in the talked-of new bridge over the Cumberland Valley tracks at Lemoyne. Almost every day I am asked whether or not the company has any plans for the improvement, and so I am passing the I would be very much obliged indeed if you will let me have any information you may have for the rewspaper on this subject.

WEST SHORE REPRESENTATIVE.
A reply to the letter was received reply to the letter was received s morning. It follows:

this morning. It follows:

Dear Sir:— to your letter of the Replying to your letter of the twenty-third instant.

This company does not have any property of the twenty-third instant.

The company does not have any property of the Rossino and the Rossino and the Rossino and I presume that if the authorities desire any changes in this bridge they will so arrange.

Very truly yours.

ASSITANT TO PRESIDENT.

For some time the West Shore Firemen's Union has been making efforts to have some protection afforded to need the result of the bridge through the railroad company. The letter from the company official throws new light on the subject and the union will probably work

John Kilgore Johnston, superintendent of the Philadelphia division, has an excellent record as an efficient railroad head. He has been in service thirty-seven years. He was born in Westmoreland county, May 8, Tomorrowa Remarkable Sale went to the Schuylkill division at Reading, where he remained from January, 1885, to January, 1887.

Builds Many Branches

His work consisted in the building of branches to manufacturing plants, right-of-way surveys, and in the many miscellaneous engineering and practical problems that are incidental to the operation of a recently constructed railroad. He next became assistant engineer of maintenance of ways at Altoona. While there he had charge of the office under M. W. Thomson. During this time unusually important work was being done by this office, to wit: the laying of third track on middle and Pittsburgh divisions and changes in Altoona yard. Mr. Johnston made the sewage survey of Altoona.

the Pennsylvania Railroad water companies east of Pittsburgh and Erie, is still in charge of the Philadelphia Division. He expects to take up his new duties in Philadelphia on Monday. His offices will be located in the Commercial Trust Building, near Broad street station. He expects to be in Philadelphia to-morrow, but will not assume official charge until next week.

The new head of the Philadelphia Division, is expected in the city some time late this afternoon. He has been on an official trip to Philadelphia and New York City. Superintendent Johnston is no stranger in Harrisburg and has many friends who are waiting to give him a warm welcome.

General Superintendent W. B. McCaleb will head one of the most important departments on the main line. He expressed his regret to-day on leaving Harrisburg and spoke in the highest terms of the city as a progressive municipality and to the kind treatment and many courtesies according him by the people of Harrisburg during his fifteen years as a resident. He is pleased with his promotion, because he will be near his friends here. "I will see you quite often," he said to-day, when many friends called to bid him farewell.

To Attend Big Meeting

in Westmoreland county, May 8, 1860.

Mr. Johnston spent his boyhood in Westmoreland county, and was educated at Greensburg 'Academy. As as young man he spent much time in mine surveys and general work of this nature, an experience which well fitted him for certain phases of the railroad life he was to follow.

His malroad career began in Janury, 1880, when he worked in the engineering department of the Pennsylvania railroad on a corps engaged in the location and construction of branch lines in the Connellsville coke region. Here he gained more experience in work connected with mining operations. From 1882 to 1885 he worked on construction of branch lines in the Connellsville coke region. Here he gained more experience in work connected with mining operations. From 1882 to 1885 he worked on construction of branch local and coke lines on the South Pennsylvania. From this work he went to the Schujklill division at Reading, where he remained from January, 1885, to January, 1887.
