ater. It was one of the basil programs a at the theater this year and each act was heartily applauded. Beginning with Vanatta and Ger-shon, whose attractiveness was one of the features of the show, every act was encored. Vanatta and Ger-shon sang and played their way into the hearts of the audience; Morris J and Campbell, comedy entertainers, J were a scream and proved to be a good second to the first act. Charles W. Boyer's presentation of "The Southern Misses in Mammy's Dream" was a good pivot act and balanced the program well. Elght pretty girls, in either singing or dancing, follow-de the example set by the first two acts. Manning, Feeney and Knoll, a f singing trio rendered several songs, and at the conclusion were forced to respond several times to the ap-plause of the audience. Pennsy Officials Ask For Control of Another Important Branch

In line with the suggestion for con-solidating all the railroads of the country into a few powerful systems for more direct supervision in opera-tion and substantial saving n ex-pense, as strongly urged by Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania Association of Railroad Commission-ers at Washington last week, the Pennsylvania has taken an important step in this direction by a plan to ab-sorb the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington railroad into its system. A meeting of stockholders of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Wash-ington railroad has been called for November 7, to vote upon leasing the pennsylvania railroad owns all but twenty'or thirty shares of the small-er noad and operates it as the south-ern link of its 25,000-mile system. The advantage of the merger, it is asserted, will be the operation of the road directly by Pennsylvania rail-road officials without maintaining a special corps of officers and direc-tors. It also will eliminate what Mr. Rea has referred to as a "needless uccounting department." Defense in Reeping open the rail transportation lines during the war, in citing the necessity for a closer combination of the railroads before the State Railroad Commissions said: "The day has come for the con-solidation and unification of railroad systems. No fewer than 2,385 sep-arate railroad corporations report to the Interstate Commerce Commis-sion, and I hazard the guess that at least 2,300 of them could be merged into the bigger systems with the vast benefit to the public and every one else concerned. "There are still in the Pennsylva-nia railroad system about 115 active transportation companies, all neces-sary, as matters now stand, for the conduct of the service. I think we will all agree that this is just 114 too many. But when we reflect that they represent what were originally more than 600 separately incorpor-ated companies, we can feel that some progress is being made in the right direction."
