

EXPECT FIRST DRAFT TO BE IN CAMP BY DEC. 1

With Quotas Disposed of, Boards Prepare For Enrollment

The local draft boards with the exception of District 2 are prepared to forward their complete quotas to Camp Meade as soon as the government calls. They expect all the men from Dauphin county will be in Camp Meade before December 1. With the first draft out of the way it is the intention of the War Department at Washington to start immediately on systematizing of the second call, which will be issued before January 1. Under the new system every registered man will have to sign a questionnaire and according to the way he signs will be delegated to one of the five classes. The man will then be called according to his class. The classes were published recently and makes provisions for every registered man, married, single, crippled, or physically fit.

An investigation into the record of the second middle judicial district which includes Harrisburg and Dauphin county, it is found that there are 71,607 men who have registered. There are 6,888 registered in Harrisburg city and 7,366 registered in Dauphin county. In District No. 1, Harrisburg, 1,677 have registered, District No. 2, 2,755, District No. 3, 2,557. In District No. 1, Dauphin county, 3,199 are registered, District No. 2, 2,495, District No. 3, 1,672. The quota for the three districts of Harrisburg is 811, for Dauphin county exclusive of this city, 586. When the men called in the first draft are sent away there will be 67,483 left in the middle judicial district, and 13,769 in Dauphin county and the city of Harrisburg.

Everything is in readiness for the departure of the colored men Monday morning at 11.50. A demonstration will be held in honor of the departing men at 10.30. A parade will be held in which will be practically all the colored organizations in Steelton and this city. The colored bands in Harrisburg and vicinity will furnish music and some of the organizations who participated in the former parades will take part. The colored Knights of Pythias have provided that as each man entrains he shall receive a package of tobacco. One hundred and two men leave Monday.

Will Meet Train of Troops With Delicacies

Red Cross workers in the canteen department, will meet a trooptrain of soldiers at Lemoyne, late this afternoon, with lunch boxes, cigars and postal cards. Sandwiches, pretzels, fruit and candy will be distributed among the boys. The canteen committee purchased 2,000 boxes of cigars from John C. Herman and Company, yesterday, and the soldiers will appreciate the smokes which the canteen workers will give them. Equipment for twelve cots will be sent to New York headquarters this afternoon, for use.

EDUCATORS TO ADDRESS TUTORS

Noted Men Are Coming For County Institute Here November 12

Plans for the annual county teachers' institute to be held in the House of Representatives during the week of November 12, have been completed by Professor Frank E. Shambaugh, county school superintendent. The program will include lectures and addresses by a number of the leading educational men of the country. The usual sectional meetings for the primary, intermediate and high school teachers has been arranged also by Superintendent Shambaugh.

The following speakers have been obtained to make addresses at the sessions: Dr. W. D. Henderson, University of Michigan; Dr. C. T. McFarlane, Columbia University; Dr. John Dennis Mahoney, West Philadelphia High School; Mrs. H. C. Fetterhoff, Harrisburg; Professor C. D. Koch, State High School inspector; Dr. H. A. Surface, former State Zoologist, at present in charge of extension work at Shippensburg State Normal School; Professor W. M. Harclerode, musical instructor, Steelton; H. G. Niesley, Dauphin county farm agent. Music for the opening of the daily meetings will be furnished by Steelton High School Orchestra members, including Ronald Ross, Raymond Sultzberger, Dorothy Whitman, Carl Hoover, Charles Page, Marian George. On Thursday, November 15, the joint meeting of all the teachers and the county school directors will be held at the Technical High School auditorium. Dr. Henderson and Dr. Mahoney will be the speakers. A feature of these meetings will be a cello solo by Miss Josephine Burkholder of the Hummelstown High School, and a violin solo by George Roth, of the Oberlin High School.

Social Workers Are Discussing Opening of Mental Clinic Here

Social workers of Harrisburg are meeting at the Civic Club this afternoon, and Kenneth L. Pray, secretary of the Public Charities Association, will address them. The meeting is for the purpose of discussing the establishment of a mental clinic in Harrisburg, for the treatment of mental diseases. A free clinic will probably be open-ened here, with mental experts in charge of the work. Mental diseases will be diagnosed and treated.
