

Ciccolini Pleases Big Audience Last Evening

About 1,500 music lovers filled the Technical High School auditorium last evening to hear Guido Ciccolini, the noted operatic tenor, illustrate the perfection of music's re-creation through the medium of the New Edison Diamond Disc phonograph.

skilful interpretation and in unison with solos by Herman Sandley and Leo Tausig. The comparison proved that the re-creation of instrumental tones were identical.

The program of the recital, which was arranged and presented through the courtesy of the J. H. Troup Music House, 15 South Market Square, was rounded out by Edison re-creations of performances by full orchestras and the piano, thus covering the entire range of modern music.

Mr. Ciccolini sang a number of selections which were re-created at the same time from records which he had previously made for Mr. Edison, and save for a slight difference in volume, perhaps, even the connoisseur could not detect when Ciccolini was silent and the re-created voice was singing.

Mr. Ciccolini possesses a rare and colorful voice with no metallic or hard quality and Edison's re-creation of it had the same beautiful texture, besides carrying no suggestion of being an imitation.

Aged Resident Motors From Mt. Holly to Visit

Mrs. Jacob Mixell, of Mt. Holly Springs, motored to Harrisburg, with Mrs. Dolly Fenton and Miss Edith Hartall yesterday to spend some time with relatives. A dinner was given in her honor last evening by her grandson, H. E. Shambaugh, 1927 Wood street. Mrs. Mixell is 88 years old and this is her first trip to Harrisburg within twelve years, and also her first trip in an automobile.

During the course of the evening many friends and relatives called on Mrs. Mixell, among them: Charles Shambaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shambaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Shambaugh, George Shatto, Floyd Shatto, Mrs. Dollie Fenton, Edwood and Ralph Shumberger, Margarette Shambaugh, George Shatto, Floyd Fenton, Leroy and Irvin Shambaugh, Glen Shambaugh, Mr. and Mrs. John Arstina, John Ensminger, Milton Wolfe, Miss Anna Yings, Miss Edith Hartall and Miss Emma Murray.

Meet John Kendrick Bangs in Informal Reception

An after pleasure of the lecture by John Kendrick Bangs Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Troup will be that the audience will have an opportunity of meeting the speaker in a social way and having a pleasant time together as well. Mr. Bangs, who is too well known through the county to need a special introduction here, will speak on "The Us and Compy," his latest and finest effort, so it is said. The proceeds will go to the Red Cross and that is another reason why a large sale of tickets is desired. Tickets can be procured from Mrs. William Henderson, Mrs. Harvey F. Smith and at the Red Cross rooms.

Notes of Interest From Otterbein U. B. Church

The program given by the Otterbein Guild of the Sixth Street United Brethren Church, Tuesday evening at the parsonage will be repeated on Sunday at 6.30 p. m. at the regular meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society. The program was well arranged and it is expected the Sunday meeting will be well attended.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold a food sale in a vacant store room, at Peffer on 6th streets, Friday and Saturday of this week, starting at 10 a. m. The fruits, vegetables and canned goods, which were used in the Harvest Home decorations in the church last Sunday, will be for sale, also homemade pies and cakes.

BERMAN AIRMEN SURPRISED

Washington, Oct. 26.—The presence of American troops in France caused great astonishment to the crews of the Zeppelins L-49 and L-50, brought down by the French last Saturday while returning from a raid on England. Official dispatches to the State Department said the prisoners declared that not one of them knew of the landing of any American expeditionary forces.

MYSTERY VEILS MICHAELIS

London, Oct. 26.—Nothing had come from any source up to an early hour yesterday confirming the report of the resignation of Doctor Michaelis, the Imperial German Chancellor. The London newspapers either ignore the report or print it inconspicuously. A dispatch from Amsterdam says everything published concerning the position of Chancellor Michaelis is based on supposition.
