Ernest Brown Relates His Experiences Abroad

Ernest S. Brown, of Pittsburgh, is spending some time with friends in this city. Mr. Brown just returned home last week from Glasgow, Scotland, where he spent the past year taking a post-graduate course of study in literature at the University of Glasgow. During his stay abroad he made an extensive tour of the British Isles, including the various places of interest in Ireland, Scotland and England. Among the numerous interesting places he visited was the ruins of Seafin, near Dublin, where the great rebellion occurred last year. Mr. Brown says that the enrollment of students at the big universities of the British Isles is much depleted and while England is not the scene of the enactment of the horrible atrocities of the Germans, there are comparatively few men who are not in the rank and file of military service.

NEWLYWEDS AT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence C. Glass, who were married last week, are home from their wedding trip to Baltimore, Washington, D. C., and various other southern points and are at home to their friends at 300 Catherine street, Riverside. Mrs. Glass was Miss Albright, of Columbia, prior to her marriage.

REJECTED SUITOR DEMANDS $10,000

Los Angeles.—Replying to Grant S. Keim's $13,000 heart balm suit charging she being jilted after he had spent $3,000 "for her benefit," Mrs. Rebecca Yager, who married C. S. Yager June 30, instead of Keim, filed an answer that "on information and belief" Keim was a married man and had never secured a divorce. Keim wants $10,000 "for the humiliation of being jilted" and the balance of the amount of money spent, but Mrs. Yager says that instead of being engaged to him for two years as she alleges, she refused his marriage proposal and furthermore asserts he never spent the sum he claims for her benefit.

LOVE FOR HER FATHER WINS GIRL $10,000

Detroit, Mich.—Mrs. Charlotte Scott's loyalty to her father, who bequeathed his entire $10,000 estate to her, was rewarded in Judge Mandell's court on Friday when the will of the late Julius F. Whener was sustained in favor of Mrs. Scott as the sole beneficiary. Shortly before Mr. Whener's death he separated from his wife. In his will he bequeathed a daughter and a son for setting his wife against him. The two children thus accused and the wife were cut off in the will, while the third child, Mrs. Scott, was favored. Judge Mandell directed the jury to give a verdict sustaining the will, holding Whener was not under "undue influence" and did not entertain "insane delusions," the two law points under consideration.

SOLDIER'S FEET TOO SMALL TO STAND STRAIN OF HIKES

Mauch Chunk, Pa.—Samuel Williams, of Walnutport, Northampton County, one of the giants of Camp Meade, being six feet five and one-half inches tall and weighing 225 pounds, has been sent home because his feet could not stand the strain of hikes.

BUTTERWORTH-GRAFF BRIDAL

The marriage of Mr. E. Mary Graff, of McKeesport, Pittsburgh, to T. Y. Butterworth, son of Mr. George H. Butterworth, of 211 Forster street, was solemnized by the Rev. Floyd Apton, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, last evening at 9 o'clock. Mr. Butterworth was formerly an employe of the State Treasury Department and now is auditor of the Guarantee Trust Company, of New York. After a short wedding journey the young couple will be at home to their friends at 211 Forster street.

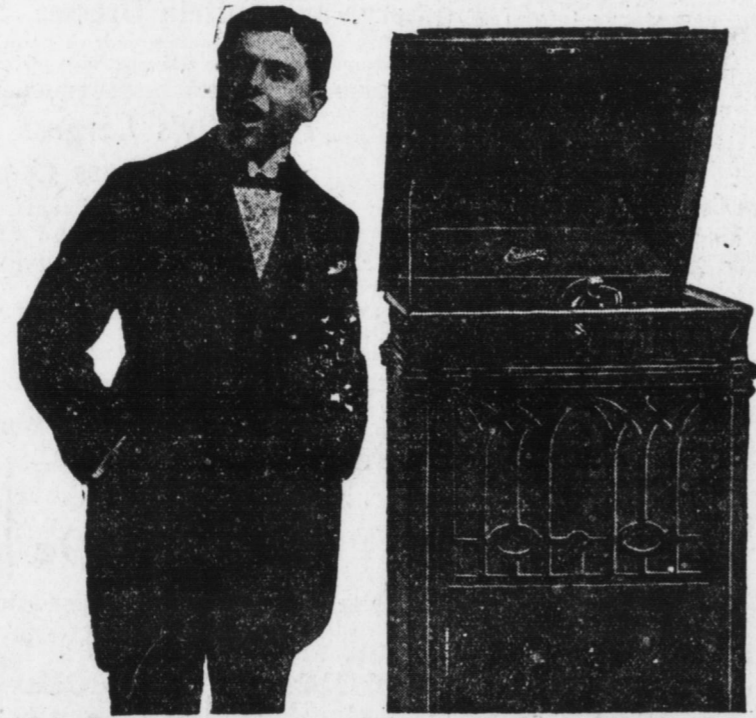

Miss Helen Arch and Miss Esther Arch, of Kunkle and Cowden streets, are home after a several days' stay at the Cove.

1500 Music-Loving Harrisburgers Gathered in Tech High Auditorium Last Night to Hear

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph With a Soul"
Subjected to the Most Searching Test That Could Be Devised

Guido Ciccolini, he whom Melba called the greatest living tenor, stood beside the New Edison and sang in direct comparison with Edison recreations of his voice. The audience sat spellbound at the rich beauty of his wonderful voice. Suddenly Ciccolini ceased to sing, and so perfectly did the New Edison take up the full, rich, glorious tones of his voice, that the audience could not tell when he was singing and when the music came from the instrument.

Are You Planning the Purchase of a Musical Instrument For Your Home?

Don't under any circumstances decide on any instrument until you have heard the finest of them all — The New Edison. Last night's demonstration proved conclusively that the New Edison actually re-creates the voice or instrumental performance of the artist. Why not have re-created music in your home? See us now about a New Edison. We are exclusive representatives for Harrisburg and vicinity.
