SCHUMANN-HEINK HELPS SOLDIERS IN SMOKE FUND Famous Mother Contributes $5,000 Received From a Recent Concert

Madame Schumann-Heink, who gave one of her matchless concerts in this city last night, set an example for persons who have been lax in contributing to our Smoke For Soldiers Fund...

More than $5,000 was realized as the result of the famous singer's efforts - enough, it is estimated, to supply 20,000 men with tobacco for one week.

Mme. Schumann-Heink has four sons in the service of the United States - and one on the "other side."

"Melting Pot" Will Receive Jewels For Work of Red Cross The plan used by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson in raising funds...

Articles, such as candelabra and antiques, which can be polished, will be cleaned and sold as souvenirs...

The melting pot was first used by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson in her jewelry store, at Washington, D. C. Since that time, this novel idea has been used in many cities throughout the entire country.
