Brilliant and Delightful

Despite the intermittent showers of last evening, Winterdale was all aglow with vim and merriment for the bal masque, given by the mem-bers of the 1916 class of the Central Wirk School

High School. Potted plants intermingled with the American flags to give the decorative setting, and the subdued light effect radiating from softly-shaded bubbs cast a somber glow over the dancers.

The Ross Church Society Orches-tra played an unusually fine dance program for the guests, who dancer from 9 o'clock until 1. The proceeds derived from the subscriptions will be turned over to the Steele Memo-rial Fund.

"WANTED—A table and three chairs, also dishes and ice chest; need not be new if in good condition."

Can you imagine how you'd go scurring out to the storeroom to look up "that old stuff out there" if you thought you could get $4, $5, or $10 cash

But why wait till somebody comes and rings the bell and asks the ques-tion? Hundreds of people "want three chairs," hundreds want a table, too, and dishes, and coffee pots, and urns, and hall racks, and linoleum, and odds and ends of carpet, valises, trunks, suit cases, stoves, cutlery, furniture, lamps, everything you can think of.

There's always a demand and a fair price (if you reach the actual buy-ers themselves), and the only way and the sure way to reach them is by a TELEGRAPH CLASSIFIED AD. You can make dollars (and now-days dollars count) out of your put-away-old-things—if you want to — and even one ad will prove it. Make up a list and try it—to-day.
