SHORTER SEASON PLANS---TECH'S NEXT GAME WITH GREENSBURG OPINIONS

FORMER CHAMP IS OPTIMISTIC

Writes Harrisburg Telegraph That He Will Come Back; Is Making Good

Fred Welsh, former lightweight champion intends to be a comeback with Benny Leonard. He is not bluffing. In a letter to the sporting editor of the Harrisburg Telegraph, writte nyesterday at the Fred Welsh Healthfarm, Long Hill Summit, N. J., the former champion says:

Will Swim Out

"Elbert Hubbard taught me that 'an optimist is a man who when he falls in the soup thinks of himself as being in the swim.' The world knows I fell in the soup when I competed with Benny Leonard in my last match, and my optimism tells me that the world will see me swim out on top soon. I have been promised a match with Leonard because I am entitled to a chance to regain my laurels.

"My health farm is progressing wonderfully, and I have succeeded in working up a waiting list for entry to the Home. The mild boxing with my patients and the numerous exhibitions at military training camps for the past six months have been most beneficial, and I am confident of making a successful come-back."

The photograph shows Goodstein, the giant Navy center rush, in position to snap the ball back to his quarterback. Under the able tutelage of Coach Doble the Middles have developed one of the greatest attacks of the present season. Because of his great strength and aggressiveness Goodstein is used ast the pivot of this attack. It was his whirlwind playing that polished up the Annapolis offense to such a degree that they swamped "Mike" Bennett's Haverford team by a record score.

It will be the Saturday afternoon. It will be the fourth game between the two teams for intersectional honors of the state. Last week Greensburg won out over Kiski Academy by a 13 to 7 score. It was a hard-fought game for the Greensburg team as they were greatly outweighed by the academy eleven. "Buddle" Lingle won quite a bit of praise for his clever playing on Saturday. His line plunging was the best seen from a Tech lad in a long time. Going in as a substitute, he has earned recognition as a regular. It would not be surprising to see Coach Ryan start this lad in the Greensburg contest.

Positions in Doubt

Several positions on the line are still in doubt and candidates will be working hard during the next few weeks trying to land a regular position on the Maroon eleven. ### Football Too Must Stand For War Tax

College football must pay its war tax, or better, those who enjoy college football must pay 10 per cent, extra on the price of tickets, to help Uncle Sam pay his growing war bills.

It was thought at first that the following clause in the War Revenue Bill would exclude football from the tax, it read as follows; "No tax shall be levied on any admissions all the proceeds of which inure exclusively to the bnefit of religious, educational and charitable institutions,"

A ruling on this question has been just made in Washington, however and college football does not come under the meaning of this clause.

After November 1, then, those who pay to see their favorite fall game must add an extra 10 per cent, to the price of their tickets. Opinions at local high schools differ as to the tax affecting the game here. According to scholastic dope in other cities, high school games are exempted.

The marvel was Fitzsimmons. Fitz was thirty-five when he dropped and with a right hook to the jaw sent the XI to spot Jeffries fourteen years and fifty pounds. Robert he Red was just starting his championship career at the age where others were through. Corbett had passed along at thirty-one, Sullivan at thirty-four and Jeffries at thirty-five. At thirty-five Fitz was just reaching for the olive sprig.

THE LEADING BACKFIELD

In Strupper, Guyon and Hill. Georgia Tech has the best backfield in America, not even barring the veterans of Pittsburgh and Colgate. Mo-Laren, of Pitt, is the leading line plunger of the year. But not even the Pitt wonder has the all-around value of Strupper and Guyon. Guyon, at Carlisle, was only a shade below Thorpe, while Strupper, for open field work, is on a par with Ned Mahan.

The two together complete the greatest attacking force in 1917 football.

"After thinking over the late world series," writes J. J. H., "no one man is strong enough to carry away the bone record in that ivory carnival." While unkempt Fate picked on Zim. there were four or five others who had Heinie badly crowded. J. J. H. is right, It would have taken four or five strong men to carry away all the "bone" honors gathered by that Safari of Swat.

Hard Behind Closed Gates

Carlisle, Oct. 31.—In preparation for a practice game to-day behind closed gates on Indian Field, when the Indians will play a strong rival from this section, Coach Harris yesteday worked his men with the same care as would be taken before a big game. Coach Warner, former chief that for the Redskins, was a stop-og visitor at Carlisle, leaving time for this afternoon's work at Pittsburgh. Warner hunts in the Cumberland Valley each season after the Penn game. The Redskins' injures have all healed, though charley horses are a bit painful. Carlisle expects a hard game against Bucknell, at Lewisburg Saturday,

Scholastic officials have no reason again cutting some figures. They to get excited over the proposed revenue tax. It does not include scholastic games, according to an announcement from Washington. College football will be taxed. This means that the cost for admission to the Bucknell-Gettysburg game will be increased. One thing is certain. Those who must pay will not be overlooked and it is time to get busy when the collector gives notice.

Evidently baseball magnates are not all of the opinion that the game will be cut out next season. A dispatch from Chicago says: "Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago American League ball club, announced that the club would train next spring in Texas, either in Mineral Wells, or San Antonio, with a probability of spending some time in each place." The Usaacs again set to work yesterday with a vim and determination that were very satisfactory, to Lieutenant Clarke, their coach. On Saturday the Usaacs are to meet the powerful Ewing A. C., and they are going to test out several new bits of strategy.
