

Capt. George F. Lumb Is Now Superintendent in Absence of Groome

Captain George F. Lumb was yesterday appointed as superintendent of state police during the absence of Lieutenant Colonel John C. Groome, of Philadelphia, who has volunteered as an officer in the United States Army. The appointment is made until the return of Colonel Groome.

Captain Lumb has been actively in charge of the office of the state police at the Capitol for a number of years and has been Colonel Groome's right hand man in the conduct of the department. He has had a long experience in the Army and went through the most vigorous part of the Philippine campaign during several years on the islands. He is president of the Harrisburg Rotary Club and received news of his appointment while presiding over a meeting of that organization last evening. The Rotarians gave him a rousing ovation.

BOY KILLED BY AUTO

Mount Joy, Pa., Oct. 31.—John H. Stauffer, 4-year-old son of Howard B. Stauffer of Landisville, was run over and killed by an automobile on Monday near his home, while crossing the street. The machine was being run by Mr. Epley, of Carlisle. The lad was carried to his home and Dr. J. S. Koendig, of Salunga, and Dr. Newton Blyler, of Lancaster, attended, but their efforts to save his life were futile. Coroner Dellinger decided that death was accidental.

Public buildings, lodge rooms, large institutions—should be decorated appropriately, and that can be accomplished if the services of a skilled and experienced decorator are called upon.

NEED OF SMOKES GROWS AS BOYS WAIT FOR BATTLE

American Lads Need Nicotine's Soothing White in Trenches

With American troops now in the first battle line in France waiting for an attack that may materialize at any moment, the need for American tobacco is being more keenly felt than it was even in the training camps.

The Harrisburg Telegraph's tobacco fund is the best arrangement yet offered for giving the boys at the front the comfort of a good smoke.

For every twenty-five cents sent to the Telegraph an American soldier in France will receive one of the American Tobacco Company's packages or kits containing tobacco, cigars and cigar papers, the retail price of which is forty-five cents.

Christmas Opening

Thursday and Friday, November 1 and 2

This year, more than ever before, many people will need to be cheered and comforted by the kindly Holiday remembrances of their friends.

Bearing in mind the unusual strain upon purse strings, due to war conditions, this little shop has provided an unusual array of useful novelties for gift purposes that make possible this year the remembrance of each friend at little outlay.

Gifts need not be lavish—extravagance is unnecessary. Here you may buy some little gift at trifling cost that will carry with it Christmas cheer and lasting pleasure in utility.

The Gift Shop Is Open and fairly brimming over with new, attractive, useful articles, too numerous to mention. Come and see them.

Handkerchiefs, of course, maintain their usual standard of quality and style of design and are here by the thousands.
