use a plain serge and trim with a plaid taffeta. Washable materials will, however, be given preference for the school dress of the early season, and the ginghams, chambrays, the cotton gabardine, cotton poplin and linen are admirable for this dress. It is a very simple garment for the body and skirt portions are cut in one. The belt is passed through slashes under the box plaits, to allow long unbroken lines. If you prefer, you can make the collar round at the back. The frock of serge with silk trimming will be serviceable for street wear throughout the mild weather as will the shepherd's check shown in the illustration.

For the 12-year size will be needed, 5½ yards of material 27 or 4¼ yards 36 inches wide with ¾ of a yard 36 inches wide for the trimming.

The pattern 9547 is cut in sizes from 8 to 14 years. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of fifteen cents.
