alleged assault.

According to the plaintiff's statement Fertich on August 15 last "struck him, threw him to the floor and tore his clothing." As a result, he alleges he was "sore, lame and disordered, and so remained for a long time, and was hindered from following his occupation and continuing his necessary business."

Fertich has also been held in his own recognizance in the sum of $400 for his appearance at the December term of Northumberland county Criminal Court, to answer to a charge of assault and battery.

Gettysburgians point with pride to the many things that have been done by the community at large and the citizens as individuals for the entertainment and uplifting of the boys, and that statements should come out purporting that the town led them into things in way of intoxication and vice is keenly felt by our people. Almost every place in the town that was suitable was opened as recreation and rest rooms and the lade were urread to take ad-

Chambersburg Fire Co. Has 26 Members in U.S. Service

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 6.—Twenty-six members of the Good Will Fire Company are now in the service in various branches of the United States Army. As a tribute to these men exercises were held in the Good Will enginehouse on Sunday afternoon when a service flag containing twenty-six stars was unfurled.

On the roll of honor are: Edgar Burgner, Darce Bowers, Jessie Cave, Ethan Ernst, William Florig, H. W. Gladhill, Russell Kyle, Frederick Myers, David Rollins, Clyde R. Smith, Jacob W. Smith, Howard Shenifen, Garnet Snyder, Alfred Schwartz, Roy Truett, Norman Sensehelmer, Robert Smith, Benjamin Sollenberger, Charles Stratton, Grover Wingert, Cyreal Cox, Edgar Kadel, Herbert Bowers, Charles Kinzer, Clyde O. Glazer and Milton G. Wingert.

During the Civil War many members of the Good Will Company were soldiers and many gave up their lives on the battlefield. In the Spanish War forty members joined the Army and during the Mexican trouble last year twenty-eight were in Company C, Eighth Pennsylvania Infantry, at the border from this one fire company.
