GRIDIRON GAME IS BIG LOSER

College Teams in East Will Show Drop of Million Dollars

Boston, Nov. 7.—Eastern colleges will lose more than $1,000,000 in football receipts this fall. That isn't to say that the game is a commercial failure in an off-season like the current one, but the elimination of the big games toward the end of the season will mean that the balance sheets for 1917 run short by about that sum.

The Sportlight by Granland Rice. Copyright, 1917, The Tribune Association (New York Tribune).

Yes, it's a fight— But on by the Shadows and out through the Night! Taking the Break of the Game as it cracks, Head up and ready for counter-attacks!

Yes, it's a scrap— But the line is ready to fill up each gap! Knowing that life has emerged from the gleam, Of softness and slumber that leads to a Dream, Heads up and ready to travel the road,

Georgia Tech's great 1917 strength might be employed to call attention to the fact that the South has one time or another sent more than one powerful eleven to the field—especially powerful when it is considered that practically no Southern squad has over 500 or 600 men to draw from.

Sport, through the many years back, has been looked upon merely as a recreation and a diversion with no other value.

USAACS STILL HOPEFUL IN FACE OF DISCOURAGEMENTS; ADVANCE GUARD ARRIVES

Allentown, Pa., Nov. 7.—Can the big Usaac gridiron juggernaut conquer the Folwell-Mahan combination on Franklin Field next Saturday afternoon? Coach Clark, of the Ambulance eleven, answered this question to-day with a broad grin.
