manager is in charge of the campaign in this district. Dinmore has just returned from a trip to York, Lancaster and Lebanon, and reports that the boys there are actively interested in the campaign and the new way of raising money for it.

Boys of the nation have been asked to contribute $1,000,000; boys of Pennsylvania $250,000. Harrisburg's contributions will run far above that mark set for the boys, and enthusiastic support from the boys themselves assures success for the fund in the district.

Each boy is asked to earn and give; money solicited from adults will not be acceptable in payment of the pledge.

That the value of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.'s work among the soldiers both in America and in Europe, cannot be overestimated, is shown by recent cable from Major General John J. Pershing, who says:

"The work now being done by the Y. M. C. A. for the comfort and entertainment of our soldiers in France is of the most important character. Its moral influence is highly beneficial. It performs a real service that makes for contentment. The Y. M. C. A. has won its place by unselfish personal devotion to the soldier's welfare and deserves staunch support by our people at home."

GOOD OLD ARMY BEAN

Humorous View of One of the Features of Soldier Life. When some one distributes a ready assortment of quotations collected from Shakespeare and others, the feat draws attention to him as a well-informed person. Not to be outdone in quoting poetic thoughts, we quote:

HARRY F. FOX ENLISTS

In the Harrisburg district thirty-six enlistments were reported yesterday. Harry F. Fox, Jr., an orderly at the Harrisburg Hospital, enlisted in the Medical Corps. He left yesterday for the Columbus barracks.

Soldier's Real Value Placed at $25,000

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 5.—How much is a "good soldier worth? How much in cold American silver or gold? If he could be sold, how much would he bring in actual cash?

It remains for Monroe Duncan, a retired Vermont capitalist, to throw light on this subject. Twenty-five thousand dollars is the price this New Englander puts on the head of a "good soldier," a private who drills well and works well and has the interest of his commander, his company and his country at heart.

There's a $25,000 soldier at Camp Gordon, but you wouldn't suspect it by looking at him. You'd know it, though if you saw him work. His name is Arthur W. Duncan, Holyoke, Mass., an infantryman, and he was transferred to this cantonment from Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.

He is Camp Gordon's $25,000 fighting man—perhaps he's the only one in the world. He hasn't any money, but his uncle, Munroe Duncan, has. "Uncle Munroe told me that if I went and made a good man there was $25,000 waiting for me when I got back," said young Duncan. "He's rather matter of fact, and that's all he said about it. But if I come back with the scalp of several Germans he might make it more. I'll try."

used to water first, for the lid's on tight all over and the drillin' makes us warm, but we can't cool off with liquor, 'cause we wear the uniform." "No more shirts of silk and linen. We all wear the 'O. D.' stuff. No more nightshirts or pajamas, for our pants are good enough. No more feather ticks or pillows, but we're glad to thank the Lord we've got a cot and blanket when we might just have a board." "For they feed us beans for breakfast, and at noon we have 'em, too while at night they fill our stomachs with a good old army stew. But by gum, we'll lick the Kaiser when the Sergeants teach us how, for, dad darn it, he's the reason that we're in the army now."—Pittsburgh Post.
