ROAD WORK MUST BESTOPPED SOON

Shortage of Cars Will Materially Interfere With Present Plans

Highway construction in Pennsylvania will be discontinued when the material now on hand is exhausted, because of the order of the priority shipment board at Washington, which has prohibited the use of open-top or hopper cars, in the transportation of materials for road building, mentioned last week in the Harrisburg Telegraph. No time limit was set by the board in its order, days or six mands may be tracted that the protect of conveyance with road materials makes their use prohibitive.

Representatives of the State Highway Department who were in Washington last week, with representatives of the fighway departments from the embargo will be raised. The demand for coal is so great that all open top cars not required in the shipment of steel and other war materials are not sufficiently numerous to meet it.

The shutdown of the Hartsburg Pipe and Pipe Bending plant, which is making shells for the United States, was due to lack of coal; and several weeks' steady shipments will be required to put the company out of the danger zone. Use of motortrucks may be resorted to by the Highway Department where repairs are urgently necessary, but the cost of such transportation for long distances is beyond reason. If the embargo on open top cars continues for a year the highways of the state constructed of macadam will be cut to pieces.

If is improbable that the Italian commander would retreat to the Brenta along its entire length, as this would leave Venice in the hands of the invaders. Busing his new defensive position on the upper Brenta and the lower Piave, General Cadorna would have a line about 100 miles shorter than that of the Tagliamento and upon it he apperently will give battle to the Austro-Germans for the possession of Venice. Behind this position the Italians would have better lines of communications and easier access to the great manufacturing cities of Northern Italy.

The retreat from the Tagliamento apparently is not so rushed as that from the Isonzo and the Italians are reported to be falling back steadily, their rear guards in constant touch with the advancing Austro-German scouts. The Italian concentration along a new defense line is progressing systematically.

British Dominate
Roulers, an important railway enter northwest of Ypres, is not ominated by British guns. Candian troops yesterday completed the capture of the important part fth Passchendaele-Cheluvelt ridge ty taking Passchendaele, Goeberg and Mossel Markt. The Germans uffered heavy losses and a number of prinoners fell into British hands. Tasschendaele dominates Roulers and the plain surrounding the town.

Passchendaele dominates Roulers and the plain surrounding the town, which lies five miles northeast.

The Germans had fought hard to hold Passchendaele and several times the British had been checked in attempts to take it. Tuesday the enterprise of the Canadians was too much for the Germans and they had to surrender the 'position, which means much to further British progress toward the Roulers-Menin Railway, one of the several lines entering Roulers.
