

RUSSIA TO ASK FOR PEACE; PREMIER KERENSKY OUSTED

PACIFISTS SEIZE PETROGRAD AFTER BLOODLESS REVOLT

Great Nation to Ask For Immediate Cessation of Hostilities; Capital City Is Taken Over by Radicals, Who Dismiss Officers of the Provisional Government and Arrest Others; All Works of Country's "Iron Premier" Are Undone; Army Called Upon to Give Outline of What It Wants Done

London, Nov. 8.—The Maximalists have obtained control of Petrograd and issued a proclamation saying the new government will propose immediate peace, the semi-official Russian News Agency announces. Premier Kerensky has been deposed. The Maximalists were assisted by the Petrograd garrison, which made possible a coup d'etat without bloodshed.

ARMISTICE WITH KAISER PROPOSED BY NEW LEADERS

Immediate Peace is Planned as Bait to Get Support of Radicals

London, Nov. 8.—The Russian News Agency, which, as reported last night, was seized by the Maximalists, sends the following dispatch from Petrograd, dated 9.50 o'clock last evening. "The day brought certain changes in the general situation in the capital. The Maximalist movement made fresh and fairly appreciable progress but no disorders have taken place."

Propose Immediate Peace "The proclamation declares that the new government will propose an immediate and just peace, will hand the land to the peasants and will support the constituents of the Soldiers' and Workmen's Delegates but that they were prepared to maintain public order."

THE WEATHER

Kaiser Calls Last Man to Arms for Final Effort

London, Nov. 8.—Germany called up her last reserves within the last few days, according to the Central News correspondent at Zurich, telegraphing under Wednesday's date. All men who previously had been rejected were ordered to present themselves for re-examination and within twenty-four hours all not utterly incapacitated were on their way to the training centers.

ALLIES SPEED TROOPS TO AID ITALY'S ARMIES

German Submarines Reap Poorest Harvest in British Shipping Since February

Across the Venetian plains the Italians continue to retire to a new defense line where a stand probably will be made to stop an Austro-German advance upon Venice. The morale of the Italian armies is improving and British and French troops are speeding to northern Italy to the aid of General Cadorna's harassed soldiers, who have now given up more than 2,100 square miles of Italian territory.

Have Reached the Livenza The invaders, Berlin announces, have reached the Livenza river between the Tagliamento and the Piave. General Cadorna has indicated that the Italians might stand on the Livenza line, but it is not improbable that the Piave will form the main part of the position from which the allied troops will make a supreme effort to check and drive back the Austro-Germans.

Lost Few Guns In retiring from the Tagliamento line the Italians were not as hurried as they had been.

Welsh Troops Conduct a Successful Raid

London, Nov. 8.—"Welsh troops conducted a successful raid last night in a sector of Armentieres," says today's report from Army Headquarters. "Fourteen prisoners were captured by us and other losses were inflicted on the enemy. Our own casualties were small."

New York, Nov. 8.—The offices of the Hamburg-American Steamship Line here were seized to-day by United States Marshal McCarty on orders received from Washington from A. Mitchell Palmer, custodian of enemy property. Julius P. Meyer, vice-director of the company and about 70 employees were ordered to leave forthwith. It was said the offices will be used by the port board and war board.

EXPECT RUSSIA TO BE THROWN INTO CIVIL WAR

Kerensky May Set Up a New Government With Moscow as Capitol

Washington, Nov. 8.—Kerensky's fall and the collapse of his government in Petrograd into the hands of the Maximalists who propose a separate peace with Germany is regarded here as threatening Russia with civil war.

The general opinion here among those in position to be best informed of Russian affairs is that Kerensky and his followers probably will at once set up a new government at Moscow, leaving Petrograd to the Maximalists and those troops who adhere to them. An armed clash is counted among the first probabilities, but it is said here that the greater part of the Army is expected to remain loyal to the Kerensky government.

H. C. Forney Run Down and Killed by Auto in York; Son of Local Druggist

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Forney, of Paxtane, received word this morning of the death of their son, H. C. Forney, near York early to-day. Definite word as to how the accident took place has not yet been received, and Mr. and Mrs. Forney left at 9.40 this morning for York. Dispatches early this morning said the accident took place in front of the building of the York Motor Club, on the Wrights-ville Pike, at 3 o'clock this morning. Forney's car stood in front of the clubhouse, and as another machine driven and owned by J. C. Pastnach, a chauffeur, residing at 24 North Fifteenth street, this city, approached, Forney is said to have stepped in front of it and waved his hands, evidently to signal that he had a breakdown and needed assistance. Pastnach was unable to swerve far enough to the side and ran Forney down, crushing his skull and breaking his legs. He died almost instantly.

He was removed to the Harrisburg Hospital in the ambulance. He suffered a compound fracture of one arm and a fractured leg. The hospital reported his condition as being rather serious. Snyder resides at 1945 Kensington street. He is married.

American Naval Gunner Sinks German Submarine

An Atlantic Port, Nov. 8.—Information from an American shell fired by a Teutonic submarine in the Mediterranean is contained in a report made to the Navy Department by the officers of an American freight steamship which arrived here recently. The vessel, of about 3,000 tons gross, was returning from an Italian port in ballast. A report of her torpedo escape from a torpedo was recently made public, but the fate of her attacker was not mentioned. The torpedo was discovered approaching from the starboard side an hour before nightfall, and the crew, expecting an explosion, hurried to the pool rail, arriving in time to see the torpedo emerge from under the ship and pass harmlessly on.

RECORD CORN CROP

Washington, Nov. 8.—A corn crop larger by more than 65,000,000 bushels than ever grown in the history of American agriculture, is the production of the farmers of the United States this year. The Department of Agriculture to-day in its preliminary estimate of the crop placed the quantity at 3,191,822,000 bushels.

MARKET DEMORALIZED

New York, Nov. 8.—Demoralization swept the stock market to-day when the news of the overthrow of the Kerensky government in Russia reached Wall Street and other financial centers. Almost every stock of importance tumbled and reached prices the lowest for the year and for much longer periods.
