FUEL ADMINISTRATOR FINDS COAL SHORTAGE ON WEST SHORE

A. F. Bedford, Cumberland County Chairman, and R. L. Myers in Charge of Lower District, Working to Equalize Supply and Demand

Carlisle, Nov. 8.—"There is a shortage of coal in West Shore towns, especially Enola," A. J. Bedford, chairman of the Cumberland County Fuel Administration Committee, said today. The first meeting of the committee was held here on Tuesday and it was brought out that although there was a shortage in the lower end of the county it was not alarming.

Mr. Bedford said that the county was well supplied and that on a preliminary investigation, the committee did not find that at any place was there a larger supply on hand than was necessary. It is the object of the committee to see that the county will be supplied and that no person will have a larger amount of coal on hand than is needed.

say, because they are following orders from the government. Mr. Bedford said that advice will be given to county coal consumers on coal conservation and the way they can assist in keeping a good stock on hand in this section of the country. West Shore Investigation An investigation of the shortage in West Shore towns will be conducted by Robert L. Myers, of Camp Hill, president of the Lemoine Trust Company, who has been assigned to the work in the lower end of the county. A report will be made on the conditions and plans made to relieve the shortage.

Former Burgess of New Cumberland 85 Years Old

John J. Hull, of Fourth street, is celebrating his eighty-fifth birthday today. Mr. Hull is one of the oldest residents of the borough and came to New Cumberland sixty-five years ago. He is enjoying good health and has an excellent memory. Mr. Hull is a member of Post 55, Grand Army of the Republic at Harrisburg. He enlisted August 12, 1862, in Company H, One Hundred and Thirtieth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, commanded by Colonel Henry J. Zinn, of Mechanicsburg. He was promoted to Sergeant, December 25, 1862 and was mustered out with the Company, May 21, 1863. He participated in the battles at Antietam and Frederickburg, where he was wounded in the left shoulder, also in the battle of the Wilderness. He relates the honors Governor Geary won in this battle. Mr. Hull was elected chief Burgess of New Cumberland for several terms. He walked to the polls on Tuesday and voted for a new chief Burgess and other borough officers.
