FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1917
Absorption in trifles, attention only to the meaner aspects of life, is killing more faith than is killed by aggressive unbelief.—GEORGE ADAM SMITH.

THE KREISLER CANCELLATION

PROMPT cancellation of the Fritz Kreisler concert when it became known that Kreisler is an officer in the Austrian army will be approved by patriotic Harrisburg people, who feel that they should refrain from patronizing one who has taken up arms against their allies, and may do so again.

THE NEW ASYLUM HEAD

The board of trustees of the State Lunatic Asylum in Harrisburg has done well in choosing a man of countrywide fame to succeed Dr. H. L. Orth as superintendent of that institution.

DIG OUT THE SPIES

An Italian diplomat declares bluntly that treachery in the ranks of his army, treachery induced by German money, was responsible for a large share in von Mackensen's drive upon the Isonzo.

FOR THE SAKE OF THESE

During the early days of the titanic world-struggle, conditions that were unappealing existed in the prison camps of Europe.

AN UNVENIED DISTINCTION

BRAZIL'S declaration of war against Germany was made by unanimous vote of the Senate and by a vote of 149 to 1 in the Chamber of Deputies.

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman

While it will take a week to analyze the results of Tuesday's election because of the soldier vote and place where the mayor was to be elected on a nonpartisan ticket and there were two candidates, the figures in the Democratic prettily plainly that most of the Democratic bosses were given jolts from which they will not recover.

WATCH ALTOONA

KEEP your eyes on Altoona. They are about to try the experiment there of applying the city manager plan to the administration of municipal government under the Clark act, and Harrisburg is mightily interested.

SHOOT AND SHOUT

Theodore Roosevelt has long been known as an apt, brassy, superior, "speak easily, but carry a big stick," "malefactor of great wealth," "race suicide," and many others come to mind as his contributions to the singular strength of what we may perhaps be permitted to call the American language.

Y. M. C. A. WAR WORK

It is the nearest thing possible to the home and actually becomes such to the boy who has been called to defend his country and were it lacking a place for recreation who is not on duty. But for this institution many would be deprived of even a home to write a letter or opportunity to rest a moment.

AMERICA HAS WAR GAS

In all this remarkable development of our chemical industries since the war it has been necessary to produce some new substances.

TRUE DOCTRINE PURITY

Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of truth, supposing that gain is godliness, from this should they abstain. But godliness with contentment is great gain.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Republican Congressmen complain that if they praise the Government they are thought to be praising the Democrats and if they criticize it they are called pro-German.

GARFIELD A MISFIT

The government's fuel administration has been badly bungled. In the summer when people normally put in coal for the next winter the government had the coal not to stock up because prices would be lower.

LABOR NOTES

The Brotherhood of Carpenters has 285,675 members.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

"It's fine to have credit."

"Yes, but it's better never to have to ask for it."

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

H. E. Bodine, manager of the Altoona Chamber of Commerce, who formerly lived here, was one of the prime movers for the city manager campaign in that city.

John H. Dalley, re-elected to Pittsburgh Council, is a former newspaper editor.

Stephen Soules, elected Burgess of Harrisburg, the first Republican to hold that office in the Berks county town in many years.

W. H. Tomhave, State College professor, is conducting a series of addresses to the Altoona public on how to butcher cattle properly.

DO YOU KNOW

That Harrisburg's chances of becoming a cattle distribution center are not properly realized?

HISTORIC HARRISBURG

One hundred years ago they used to celebrate elections by public dinners at which each man paid his own plate charge.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND

ALWAYS LIKED REGINALD OR GWYNNE

I THINK CLIFFORD OR CLARENCE OR WILBUR ARE SO PRETTY

HIS PAPA WANTS TO CALL HIM BILL OR JIM— BUT THOSE ARE SUCH ROUGH NAMES— I THINK PERCIVAL SEXTUS AFTER HIS GREAT UNCLE IS SUCH A NOBLE SOUNDING NAME

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM

MR. HAND'S COURSE

To the Editor of the Telegraph: I regretted to see the name of Fred C. Hand mentioned yesterday in connection with the Fritz Kreisler concert and rejoiced that Mr. Hand had taken time by the forelock and had canceled the Kreisler engagement.

PRAYER FOR OUR NATION

On October 24 the New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company held its annual meeting. At its opening Dr. Harry Leigh raised the point of order that all large bodies holding meetings customarily open with prayer.

CREDIT

"It's fine to have credit." "Yes, but it's better never to have to ask for it." Senator Boies Penrose, who was here yesterday on his way to Penn Creek to be guest of Judge Witmer on a hunting trip, saw that he will hardly get a chance to go west to hunt in the Berks, as that is in Pennsylvania, to be a pretty good hunting state. The Senator is anxious to get a bear.
