LAST SERVICE IN MESSIAH CHURCH

Will Abandon Old Building While Rebuilding Operations Are Being Done

To-morrow the congregation of the Messiah Lutheran Church will worship for the last time in the old church building. Until the new edifice is ready for dedication the members will worship in the basement of the new church. The Rev. Henry W. A. Hanson, pastor, will preach at the morning service while in the evening the choir will sing Mathews' great Reformation cantata, "The City of God." W. D. Hollenbach, tenor of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church choir, will assist the regular choir.

The new building was started in the summer of 1915 and is of Gothic architecture. Port Deposit granite is being used on the exterior of the building. When the new church is completed it will be one of the most attractive of Harrisburg's many churches. The old church building was built more than a quarter of a century ago during the pastorate of the Rev. Dr. T. S. Everett. The church was dedicated in 1838. The congregation of the Messiah Church is one of the largest Lutheran congregations in the city.

MAGNIFICENT NEW MESSIAH LUTHERAN CHURCH

To-morrow the Messiah Lutheran congregation will worship for the last time in the old building. The beautiful new structure now virtually completed will be used in part for services hereafter. The new church is one of the finest buildings in the city. Lutherans throughout the city are proud of the structure.

Revival Services to Open in Fourth Street Church

The Fourth Street Church of God will begin a three weeks' revival service to-morrow morning. Dr. William N. Yates, pastor, will use "Our Marching Orders" and "Christ and the Home" as his sermon themes for the day. During the week the subjects will be: Monday, "God Hates Sin;" Tuesday, "God Loves Sinners;" Wednesday, "Jesus Conquered Sin;" Thursday, "Jesus Forgives Sin;" Friday, "Jesus Saves From Sin." The congregation has been divided into twenty-seven groups, and a leader for each group has been appointed. Every family of the church will be visited before Sunday morning and earnestly invited to be present at the first service.

OWLS TO HOLD FIRST MEMORIAL

Fifteen Hundred Members of Fraternal Order Expected to Attend Services

Fifteen hundred members of the different nests of the Order of Owls of this city and Steelton will attend the first annual memorial service of the order to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Technical High school auditorium. The service is the first of its kind ever arranged by the Owls of this section of Pennsylvania. Arrangements for this service are in charge of a joint committee of the three local nests. The service itself is designed as a final tribute to the four deceased members of Capital City Nest No. 1729, who have died during the present year. Deceased members are William J. Loser, former Central High school student and local athlete; Jacob Hausman, Raymond Heck and H. M. Durborrow. The invocation is to be made by the Rev. E. S. Rupp, of the Otterbein United Brethren Church, and the memorial address will be given by Eugene G. Cohen, a local attorney. Prominent local musicians and soloists will participate in the program, which is the most pretentious ever arranged for a like service in this city. Single illumination at this service will be a huge cross hanging over four vacant chairs on the platform. Electrical effects of this cross have been provided by E. A. Blumstein, of Capital City Nest, and the floral tributes have been provided by F. E. Ridenour, of the same nest. Members of the deceased families will occupy special seats at the service, as will also members of the Harrisburg Ladies' Nest No. 1930, who are invited to attend. The service will open at 3:30 o'clock and march in a body to the auditorium. Admission to the service will be by ticket only and promptly at 2:30 o'clock the doors will be closed in order that no interruptions may occur during the service. The doors will open one-half hour before the service. The program will be as follows: Voluntary, selected; Updegrove's orchestra opening ritual; prayer, Rev. Edwin S. Rupp, pastor of the Otterbein United Brethren Church; roll call, called by T. P. Carey, secretary of Harrisburg Camp No. 1729; soprano solo, "The Vacant Chair," by Root, William W. L. Webster; president's charge, by DeWitt A. Fry, secretary of the camp; "The Star Spangled Banner," by the camp orchestra; "Crossing the Bar," by Cowles, A. W. Hartman; intermezzo, "Mermaid of the Nile," by Flivio Hein, Updegrove's orchestra; address, Eugene Fager; memorial address by Eugene Cohen; soprano solo, "Face to Face," by Johnson, William W. L. Webster; duet, "Far Over the Stars Is Thy Rest," by Mrs. Fager and A. W. Hartman; voluntary, "The Star Spangled Banner," Updegrove's orchestra. Officers of the memorial service are as follows: President, DeWitt A. Fry, Keystone Nest No. 1932; past president, Irene W. Stewart, Ladies' Nest No. 1930; invocator, Isaac Stevens, Harrisburg Camp No. 1729; secretary, T. P. Carey, Capital City Nest No. 1729; clergyman, the Rev. E. S. Rupp, Otterbein United Brethren Church, Salt Lake City; Dr. Farr of Los Angeles and many other noted men of all denominations. Superintendent Fulton feels that the mission is highly important in this first visit of Dr. and Mrs. Russell. He is giving bright, funny, addresses every night and next week will give a rare set of messages in the afternoon on the most momentous subjects that can interest all the thinking people of Harrisburg.

DR. BAGNELL TO VISIT THE CAMPS

Will Preach Last Sermon at Grace Church on Sunday Evening

Dr. Robert Bagnell, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church State near Third street, will preach his last sermon in Grace church, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, prior to his leaving for the continents. His topic for this last sermon is "A Square Deal in Camp and the Trench." This sermon will be a logical presentation of why the people should support the War-Work Campaign which starts in Harrisburg Monday evening. A special feature of the service will be the presentation to Grace Church of a Service Banner consisting of twenty-seven stars and another feature will be the reading of the honor roll. This Service Banner is being presented to Grace Church by ten men active in the affairs of the church and is only one of the many things Grace Church is doing to honor the men who have left their altar to go and fight for our beloved Country. Dr. Bagnell leaves Harrisburg on Tuesday morning and will be away from the city for four or five weeks. His itinerary is as follows: The Naval Reserve Camp at Newport, R. I. November 13th to November 19th; Camp Upton, Yaphank, November 19th to November 26th; Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J., November 26th to December 3rd and finally Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., December 3rd to December 10th. Camp Hancock is making a strenuous effort to have Dr. Bagnell with them from December 10th to December 17th, but it is not known, at present, if this can be arranged. Dr. Bagnell will preach Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock on "Love and Sacrifice." It is anticipated that at both the morning and evening services the apacuous auditorium of Grace Church will be filled to overflowing. Special Patriotic selections will be sung by the Church Chorus Choir, under the leadership of Professor John W. Phillips and the Ushers and Reception (Glad Hand) Committees have been augmented so that they can more easily handle the anticipated large audience.

REV. J. M. GRAY TO TEACH BIBLE

Thirty-fourth Interdenominational Monthly Bible Conference to Begin March 25

Rev. Dr. James M. Gray, dean of the Moody Bible Institute, of Chicago, will be in Harrisburg from November 25 to November 28, and will be the teacher at the 34th Interdenominational Monthly Bible Conference. All the sessions of this conference will be held in the First Baptist church, Second and Pine streets. Dr. Gray does not have a superior as a Bible teacher. Mr. Moody secured Dr. Gray for the great Bible institute in Chicago, and under his management and teaching, it has grown to be the largest of its kind in the world. Dr. Gray will teach from two of the most interesting subjects of the day. Each afternoon on "The Christian in Every Day Life." Each evening on "Prophecy, the War and the Lord's return." The doctor is creating a great interest on the part of hundreds in the study of Prophecy, as it relates to present day and future conditions. These lectures are free to all and capacity houses, are predicted. Dr. Gray is not a stranger to Harrisburg Bible students, he having been here under the auspices of the city Y. M. C. A. some years ago.

Rev. Dr. Walter Russell at the Bethesda Mission

DR. WALTER RUSSELL, Dr. Walter Russell, who in a personal friend of Superintendent John Fulton, is spending a first time at the Bethesda Mission between engagements. He is a man of unusual ability and originality of thought and expression. He has a wonderful vision of spiritual truth and an intense love for his Master and men. His style of expression is strikingly unique, interesting and effective. He is heartily endorsed by Bishop Quayle, Dr. Robinson of McCormick Seminary, Dr. Richard of Westminster College, Salt Lake City; Dr. Farr of Los Angeles and many other noted men of all denominations. Superintendent Fulton feels that the mission is highly important in this first visit of Dr. and Mrs. Russell. He is giving bright, funny, addresses every night and next week will give a rare set of messages in the afternoon on the most momentous subjects that can interest all the thinking people of Harrisburg.

A Prayer For Our Soldier Boys

The following prayer has been written by the Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker, pastor of Stevens Memorial Methodist Church: O Lord, bless our soldier boys that are thrusting bravely on like a ship in Arctic seas toward the wonder of the 34th earth. O God, bring us with them to a better day. Bless everything the world ought to have; repress everything the world ought not to have. Stamp the heel of Thy foot upon wickedness. Put the hand of Thy might underneath righteousness and lift it up. And grant to every great, honorable, virtuous cause the substantial comfort of knowing that God is behind it and will not let it fall or fail. Hear the mothers of this and who plead before Thy throne for sons who have gone forth to battle for the right. Bless the priceless treasures of our lives who are willing to suffer, and, if need be, to die, for our Country. Give our loved ones the manhood to meet this supreme test of life, give them strength of body, of mind and soul to do battle for the right. Arm them with Thy might to smite evil; hold them tight in Thy arms of love; yea, though they walk through the Valley of the shadow of Death, may Thy presence banish fear and Thy rod and Thy staff comfort them. We trust them to Thee. Hear O God, our prayer, for Jesus' sake, Amen.

CHOIR TO RENDER FAMOUS CANTATA

Mathews' Reformation Cantata, "The City of God" to Be Given For First Time

The choir of Zion Lutheran church under the direction of E. J. Decevee will give for the first time in Harrisburg, tomorrow evening, H. Alonzo Mathews' prize Reformation Cantata "The City of God."
