Jail Sentences For Men Who Cannot Pay Fines

Mrs. Henery Is Hostess For Highspire Folks

Harry Griffin was sent to jail for thirty days yesterday by Alderman Landis in police court on the charge of acting as "steerer" to a party of soldiers who motored here from Gettysburg. He had agreed to furnish the soldiers with drink and companions, and was with the soldiers when he was taken into custody. His fine was 2.5, which he was unable to the companion, and was with the soldiers when he was taken into custody. His fine was 2.5, which he was unable to the companion, and the cored, was sent to jail for thirty days on the charge of disorderly practice on the street. Her fine was $60. Mike Staniech, her companion, an Austrian, who halls from Billmeyer, paid $10 fine.

Allen Brown, colored, 328 Cherry street, was convicted of assault and battery. Charge was brought by John Sanders, who said Brown hit him over the head with a plano stool when he remonstrated with him for quarreling with his wife. Sanders withdrew the charge and Brown paid the cost.
