WITH COMMITTEE

May Not Be Held Next Year; Mail Vote on Championships

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 21 .- Representatives of the Amateur Athletic Union

Whether a track and field championship meet shall be held by the A. A. U. in 1918 was left to the championship committee, which also will determine the place, if a meet is held. New York, New Orleans and Los Angeles are asking for the meet. The formal awarding of championship titles will be made a mail vote, as will the place for the next championship meet.

Important changes were made in the rules regarding swimming and boxing. There was no fight against the continuation of registering women swimmers this year, and they were given the additional privilege of collecting expenses for a chaperone when attending meetings away from home. The height for the diving board in the diving contests was lowered to between twenty and twenty-two feet, the women objecting to going off those from twenty-four to twenty-seven feet in height.

Drawings For Boxing

In boxing a rule was passed that drawings must be held each night if a tournament went more than one night. Some half a dozen other mistor night. Some half a dozen other minor amendments were made.

Indians Are Preparing For Game With Penn

ernoon.

Scrimmage w... probably be the order for Wednesday and Thursday evenings, behind closed gates.

The undue extension of the Georgia Tech game, which was dragged out to nearly two hours in length, was trying on the Indians, who have faced a hard schedule lately.

The recuperation of this week will faced a hard schedule lately.

The recuperation of this week will be much appreciated. From present appearances only one or two of the regular Indian lineup may have to be substituted for in the game against Pennsylvania on Saturday.

Lassa may have to be away at a funeral, and Center Fred Walker, who is suffering with a sprained knee, may have to be substituted for Amos Jones, who is probably the the youngest center playing on an important team.

NEW MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMPION AND MAN WHOM HE BEAT IN A SUSPICIOUS BOUT

In a fight that some fans believe was a fake, Mike O'Dowd, of St. Paul, beat Al McCoy, the alleged middleweight champion, in six rounds in Brooklyn. McCoy went down for the count. It was the last night of public boxing under the Frawley Act in New York City. The repeal of the law went into effect November 15.

A correspondent writes to inquire which game profits most by coach—football, baseball, rowing, basketball, tennis, golf or track. There is very little argument to be wasted here.
Football requires coaching above any two games mentioned through

For coaching is not only needed in the way of individual instruction, but for the development of team play.

And team play is a more vital factor in football than in any other sport.

War AND PEACE

If any land in the world should know the value of team play the answer is America.

In her two greatest games, baseball and football, hundreds of thousands of her citizens have been shown that team work is one of the mightiest factors.

This knowledge and this instruction should help her in war as well as beace.

This knowledge and this instruction should be peace.

She has been taught for several decades that a team of all stars which failed to work together could not overthrow a compact rivalry using the needed team play.

Knowing all this, and having had it proved beyond all doubt, America isn't very likely to discard team work values very long.

Two champions went to the front back in August, 1914, and have been at the front ever since, having balked death for over three years. One of these is Larry Jenkins, golf champion of Great Britain. The other is Georges Carpentier, the French boxing champion.

They remain among the few survivors of that first Allied army, two of the most notable who have escaped.

Jenkins won the amateur championship the year that America sent Travers, Ouimet and Evans to Sandwich in one the greatest international fields ever gathered.

He sank his wining putt on the thirty-fifth green in late May. In early August he was wearing khaki, ready to start for France.

Pennsylvania Rallroad athletes are turning up for the big contests which are now underway. The system contests will be in full blast after the holidays. March is the time limit for completion of all elimination matches, and then will come the big windup in Philadelphia.

At the recent meeting in Louis-ville, Larry Lajoie went on record as saying that Harry Davis had no equal for detecting the battery signals of an opposing team. According to the lajoie, every member of the old world-beating Athletics benefitted by his assistance. "He made many a base hit for them," said Larry.

one week from to-morrow the annual game between Central High and Tech elevens will be staged. This will end these annual contests. Central passes out of football this season because of a change in the school system. Tech will look for an opponent for Thanksgiving Day. They could find none better than Steelton.
