BREAK RULES OF CAMP, MEADE MEN GIVEN ICE BATH

Five Runaways Dragged From Warm Cots to Maintain Army Discipline

Camp Meade, Admiral, Md., Nov. 22.-Masked like "whitecaps" and clad in dungarees, members of E Company, 313th Infantry, went into the barracks last night, took five members from their cots and dragged them to the shower baths and pulled the plugs. The shivering victims had gone to Baltimore without leave, and by this action had jeopardized the chances for the other members of the company from being granted Thanksgiving passes.

For some time past the abuse of the pass system has become prevalent. The many of the regimental commanders were forced to shut down the privilege to all. Colonel Swezey, commander of the Three Hundred and Thirtieth Infantry, became so incensed at the abuse that he informed his men that if any soldier violated the regulations of absence the privilege would be withdrawn from everybody and the innocent would have to suffer with the guilty.

Tuesday night five of the company "jumped" and went to Baltimore. The news of their escapade reached their fellows, who held a conference and concurred on the punishment to be meted to the offenders. The fugitives returned and had sought their cots, when the masked men leaped upon them.

Members of the quintet were stripped outside, taken beneath the showers and there confined to an icy bath in the chilling atmosphere.

Dillsburg Stores to Close Four Evenings Each Week

BOY SHOT IN EYE Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 22.-William Frock, 17 years old, of Mount Pleasant township, was accidentally shot in the eye by a friend, John Kemper, while on a hunting trip near their homes. The two boys, in company with a younger brother of Frock, had stirred up a covey of birds and in firing one of the shot Frock struck the eye. It is possible the eye may have to be removed.

ESCAPED PRISONER CAPTURED Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 22.-Charles Helmer, 17 years old, of Hanover, who with Henry Ferry, another youth, broke out of the York county jail last Friday, was captured by York officers at the home of Harry Eckenrode, near Heidersburg, ten miles from here, where he was helping to husk corn. Some years ago young Helmer escaped from the Glen Mills reformatory and was caught at the same place.

ADELAIDE KEIM AND CHARLES EATON, TWO PRINCIPALS IN MOTHER CAREY'S CHICKENS

Getting out of a rut-

is a "ticklish" proposition, in any event!

Ever see a fellow driving along a country road, his buggy wheels in a hard, sun-baked deep rut?

Know how he turns the horse over to the side of the road, but the wheels are "stubborn"?

They persist in "clinging" to the rut, until a "low place" is reached

-then out they go, over the smooth, easy part of the road!

Some auto owners stick to the "rut."

And, goodness knows, there's no greater car comfort than in the OVERLAND TOURING SEDAN

-shielding you from all kinds of brisk weather!

You'll never know 'til you try it!

Then - you'll never go back to the old way.
