WALTER DAMROSCH

The program of numbers which are to be given at the concert of the New York Symphony Orchestra. Walter Damrosch, conductor, with Ethel Liginska as soloist, next Saturday afternoon at the Chestnut Street Auditorlum, was sent on from New York and made public to-day by Fred C. Hand, director of the Keystone Concert Course. Owing to the importance of the vent and the fact that habit of studying over unmired of a symphony concert in advance, the program is given in full, with a few notes for guidance. It is believed the Public Library will have material for detailed study of the compositions and composers for those who desire it.

Mr. Damrosch is acknowledged as a master of program making among conductors, and the numbers he has included for the Harrisburg concert are an exemplification. For the symphony there is Goldmark's "Rustic

This will be followed by Granville Bantock's comedy-overture, "The Pierrot of the Minute," one of the contemporary compositions of present-day sophistication and complication, yet withal great charm. The concert will close with Strauss "Roses of the South." There are those of old-fashioned mind who think that a Strauss waltz is just "dance music." If any such are present at the concert they will open their they wond to with these compositions, which are considered by competent critics, works of high genius in their own field. #### A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By mornins, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and dig-ging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better—Adv.

Company, 313th Infantry, went into the barracks last night, took five members from their goats and dragged them to the shower baths and pulled the plugs. The shivering victims had gone to Baltimore without leave, and by this action had jeopardized the chances of the other members of the company from being granted Thanksgiving passes.

For some time past the abuse of the pass syste has become to prevalent that many of the regimental commanders were forced to shut down the privilege to all. Colonel Sweezy, commander of the Three Hundred and Thirteenth Infantry, became so incensed at the abuse that he informed his men that if any of the soldiers violated their leaves of absence the privilege would be withdrawn from everybody and the innocent would have to suffer with the guilty.

innocent would have to suffer with the guilty.

Tuesday night five of the company "jumpéd" and went to Baltimore. The news of their escapade reached their fellows, who held a conference and concurred on the punishment to be meted to the offenders. The fugitives returned and had sought their cots, when the masked men leaped upon them.

Members of the quintet were stripped outside, taken beneath the showers and there treated to an ley bath in the chilling atmosphere.

Getting out of a rut-

is a "ticklish" proposition, in any event!

Ever see a fellow driving along a country road, his buggy wheels in a hard, sun-baked deep rut?

Know how he turns the horse over to the side of the road, but the wheels are "stubborn"?

They persist in "clinging" to the rut, until a "low place" is reached

-then out they go, over the smooth, easy part of the road!

Some auto owners stick to the "rut."

Seems like they don't want to be first to use the closed car!

And, goodness knows, there's no greater car comfort than in the OVER-LAND TOURING SEDAN

-shielding you from all kinds of brisk weather!

You'll never know 'til you try it!

Then - you'll never go back to the old way.
