

Every family in Harrisburg

should take advantage of this wonderful combination offer--The American Magazine and the Woman's Home Companion and your favorite newspaper, The Harrisburg Telegraph, at only a few cents per month more than the regular price of the Telegraph alone.

Read every word of this advertisement and see what advantage this offer brings to every member of your family.

You know the Telegraph--the most-widely read daily in Central Pennsylvania--its policy of constructiveness, that it is sold to you on merit alone instead of the exploiting of froth and sensationalism and sordid sex-appeal that mark so many cheaper dailies.

But now see how much more you get at only a few cents extra.

The American Magazine

This is the way the editor of The American Magazine regards his readers:

Most of them have to work for a living. They want to make money, save money, and increase their personal efficiency.

They are anxious to keep in good health. They want to get on in the world. They want their town to get on. They want this country to get on. They have obligations and responsibilities to meet. They want to meet them fully and wisely. They are just as acquisitive for new facts and ideas as they are for money. Both look good to them. The American Magazine strives to recognize human beings as they are and to reach out and meet them.

Woman's Home Companion

In every number of the Woman's Home Companion there are good stories--most of them love stories. There is something good to eat--new dishes you are anxious to learn about. There is something to wear--either making a new dress or making over an old one so that it is a new dress. There is something about the baby--how to keep it well or how to dress it right. There is something about your children and your husband. All these things are written by people who know what they are writing about.
