PALMER URGES CARE OF WORKERS

Acting Commissioner Says People Should Have Regard For Women in Stores

Low R. Palmer, Acting Commissioner of the Department of Labor and Industry, during the week service of Major John Price Jackson, issued today a strong appeal for the conservation of women workers in department stores during the Christmas season. "While the inspectors of this Department will concentrate their efforts in enforcing the Women's Law during the rush of the Christmas holidays, it is undeniable that the best protection against any tendency toward illegally long hours of work for women in the stores will be the general public using its Christmas shopping early in the season and early in the day," said Acting Commissioner Palmer.

Late Model Tanks to Be Used on U. S. Front

Washington, Nov. 24.—Tanks for the American Army are expected to be used in every way as those used by the British in their great offensive in France. The tanks, though no details of construction or as to the number of machines being built were available. "It is an open secret that some American officers have not up to this time at least regarded the tanks as highly desirable for the American forces in view of the difficulties of transportation and the ponderous character of the tank equipment. There has also been some question heretofore as to their actual military value."

Protection For Mothers Working on War Contracts

Protection for mothers employed in Government war contracts is recommended by the Committee on Women in Industry of the American National Defense. "No woman," says its bulletin on industrial standards, just issued, "shall be employed during a period of two months prior to, or two months subsequent to, childbirth."

Shot With Typhus Serum, Didn't Need Undertaker

Bridgeport, Pa., Nov. 24.—When relatives of William Ulaniski, of Swedesburg, received from him that he was to be shot at Camp Meade, and that they should come down with an undertaker, they were surprised to find him alive. He thought he was to be killed when the medical examiner told him he was to be "shot to-morrow," meaning inoculated for typhoid fever.

Highwaymen Steal $2,800 From Paymaster at Erie

Erie, Pa., Nov. 24.—Timothy Carroll, paymaster and purchasing agent for the T. M. Nagle Company, a large boiler and engine industry, was attacked and robbed by two bandits yesterday while carrying $2,800 from a bank to the factory. When about a block and a half from the office he was attacked and he fired a shot as the other snatched him, and women screamed and men rushed toward the highwaymen, but they fled back toward the crowd with their revolvers and ran toward the alien element section of the city. Members of the Erie city police force are guarding state highways and bridges in the vicinity, are co-operating with the city authorities in the search for the arrest of the bandits.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK BRIGHT

More Cheerful Feeling Comes From Marked Activities. New York, Nov. 24.—A gradual but to-day said: "More cheerful feeling, probably born of the reported success of the allied arms overseas, and completion of nearly all the liquidation, heavy governmental buying, the return of Liberty Loan money into circulation, 30-cent cotton, and the improvement of the export situation, has been reflected in the excellent high bank clearings and super-animated activity in most industrial lines turning out essential goods of war are factors that easily eclipse any lagging tendencies that prevail. In a number of lines and in the new consignment about to be received as a further gift of the graduates."

YALE OPENS ITS ARTILLERY HALL

University Now Ready to Instruct Youths in War Work.

New Haven, Nov. 24.—The formal opening and public inspection this morning of Yale's Artillery Hall marked the completion of the equipment for the university's school of field artillery. With the Yale Artillery Armory, built by the graduates at an expense of $135,000 and dedicated at Commencement last June, Yale now has a field artillery equipment equalled by no other college in the country and probably unexcelled by any Regular Army artillery school, except the School of Artillery at Ft. Monmouth, N. J. This hall in which the 674 members of the Yale Reserve Officers' Training Corps will study the battery of French 75's recently sent to the United States, offers complete facilities for studying the technique of field artillery. In addition to the work of the guns at Artillery Hall, which adjoins the Baseball Cage in the rear of the University gymnasium, the students daily go out to Yale Field, where at Artillery Armory they can work with the thirty horses provided by the Government and the new consignment about to be received as a further gift of the graduates.

UPPER END TOWNS ALL OVER THE TOP

Y. M. C. A. Fund Quotas Are Greatly Exceeded, Reports Show

The upper end towns of Halifax, Millersburg, Berryburg, Piltow, Gratz, Elizabethtown, Loyaltown, Lykens, Wiconisco and Williams-town, all have contributed more than their quota to the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. war fund. Edward Bailey, chairman, and James E. Lentz, his assistant, reported to-day. The subscriptions in the upper end are not closed yet as a number of churches desired to raise additional funds to do so. Wiconisco, instead of the $750 asked, sent down $900, which is considered large for the population. The United Mine Workers there gave $25, and the Knights of the Golden Eagle, and the P. O. S. of A. donated $50 while a number of high school boys pledged $10 each. The P. O. S. of A. of Loyaltown in addition to $5 in cash sent to the committee a handsome Bible which it is requested shall be sent to the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Meade, where many upper end boys are under training. The women's team at Elizabethtown, made up of Mrs. C. W. Cook, chairman; Mrs. S. A. Miller, Mrs. C. C. McLaughlin and Mrs. C. T. Romberger, gathered more money than the men's team, a total of $125.
