LET OUR SOLDIER BOYS BLOW THOUGHTS IN ENJOYABLE SMOKE

Energetic Lemoyne Man Has Established List of Contributors Who Will Provide Tobacco For Men in Field

West Shore residents have taken steps to see that every native of Lemoyne, Camp Hill and Lower East Pennsboro township in the war service is given a token of remembrance. J. C. Thompson, electrical engineer at the United Electric Company, two months ago started a petition in circulation, which residents were asked to sign, pledging themselves to give monthly during the war to the support of a fund to be used in buying tobacco, cigars and other small useful things which the government does not furnish the boys.

J. C. THOMPSON

Gets $50 Monthly
Starting on the third month of this plan, Mr. Thompson announced today they have enough names on the list pledging themselves to pay toward the fund that it now totals $50. The first month's package to the boys included a pipe, two packs of tobacco, two packs of cigars and two packs of cleaners. A new supply of tobacco, cigars and papers was sent the second month. Khaki handkerchiefs were also included in this present. These gifts were shipped yesterday.

Christmas Presents For Boys

Three boys in France will receive their Christmas presents shortly. These gifts include ten packs of cigars and a like number of packs of tobacco, chewing gum and papers.

The gifts for the third month, aside from the smoking supplies, will include a tooth brush, paste, safety razor, trench mirror and soap. These packages will be sent before December 15.

Honor List

The boys who are on the honor list receiving packages are: Herbert Washington, Camp Meade; Edmund Long, Gettysburg; John Bricker, Fort Slocum; Charles C. Cummings, Robert F. McCormick, Hempstead, N. Y.; Corporal Harry A. Shearer, Camp Meade; Clyde Greenawald, Camp Hancock; Willis J. Bentz, Camp Hancock; Earl Kinter, Camp Meade; J. B. Cuticura Healed Pimples on Face

Hard and Red. Itched So Badly Scratched and More Broke Out. Caused Disfigurement. Used One Box Ointment and One Cake Soap.

"I suffered from pimples for several years. They were hard red pimples, and came to a head and were scattered over my face. They itched so badly that I scratched them and more broke out. I did not get proper sleep. The breaking out caused much disfigurement and the disfigurement made me look much older. "Then my friends told me to send for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I did. I bought more, and I used one box of Cuticura Ointment and one cake of Soap when I was healed." (Signed) Julius Lisker, 819-Cantrell St., Philadelphia, Pa., March 26, 1917. Prevent further trouble by using Cuticura Soap for the toilet.

For Free Sample Each by Return Mail address post-card, Cuticura, Dept. H, Boston. Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

The Rev. H. B. Barshinger Dies at Mont Alto

Lemoyne, Pa., Nov. 26.—The Rev. Henry B. Barshinger, a well-known minister of the United Evangelical Church, died at the Mont Alto sanatorium yesterday morning following an illness of five months. For the past four years he has been associated with Bishop H. B. Hartzler in the Evangelical Publishing house work at Harrisburg.

Born in Windsor, York county, November 9, 1864, and educated in the public schools of York county, he attended the Central Pennsylvania College and was graduated in 1889 with the A. B. degree.

After teaching school for fifteen years he became a licensed minister of the gospel in the United Evangelical Church. He has been living in Lemoyne for almost a year and during that time preached whenever asked in churches throughout the state until he was unable to do so on account of his health.

Funeral services will be held from his home, 462 Hummel avenue, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. H. T. Searle, pastor of the United Evangelical Church, will officiate. Further services will be held at York in Zion United Evangelical on Thursday morning. The services there will be in charge of Bishop H. B. Hartzler and the Rev. W. E. Missley, of Lemoyne. Burial will be held in the Greenmount Cemetery, at York.

He is survived by his wife, three children, father, two brothers and two sisters.

THE NEW JEWELRY STORE OF THE HOUSE OF BOAS

28 NORTH SECOND STREET

WILL BE INFORMALLY OPENED TO THE PUBLIC TOMORROW AFTERNOON AT 2 O'CLOCK

The achievement has significance infinitely broader than the fact that it inaugurates a retail establishment.

The House of Boas, founded in 1850 by Jacob D. Boas, began with an unwavering adherence to integrity, which has become intimate to the public through the sixty-seven years of its career.

The New Store, a structure of architectural magnificence and unique interior appointment, is the conception of the present owner of the business, whose purpose it was to contribute to Harrisburg another factor lending interest and usefulness.

The House of Boas has carried the inspiration of its founder upwards through four generations and now on an old landmark of the city, in a treasure-house definitely and especially reared for its new home, enters upon the threshold of a new epoch in its life.

The New Jewelry Store is destined in service for the many rather than for the few.

THE PUBLIC IS RESPECTFULLY REQUESTED TO ATTEND ON THIS OCCASION AND VIEW THE STOCKS WHICH EMBODY CHOICE SPECIMENS IN THE RESPECTIVE LINES

A special invitation is extended to inspect the new building in its entirety. A feature of peculiar interest is the "bonding" together of the various parts of the structure into a solid unit. It is perhaps, the only building in the city which is so firmly and heavily built for its size.

The interior interprets the final word in the appointment of a retail establishment, and in the beauty of the mahogany woodwork and marble embodies the elements of an edifice that may well be considered one of the show places of Harrisburg.

The structural elements, which so excellently express artistic character deserve to be mentioned in praise of the skill of the architect.

The mezzanine floor, permitting the flow of sunlight to the main floor, is one of the distinctive features of the store.

Bronze forms the metal part of the exterior of the building and entrance doors, while glazed terra cotta in Renaissance design embellishes the structure.

There are various ornamental notes of unusual pattern which harmonize with the whole architectural scheme, having been, as were all parts of the building and appointments, specially designed.

The Exposition of Diamond and Platinum Jewelry

This fine collection, selected by Mr. C. Ross Boas, embodies, what is, perhaps, the most extensive and diversified assortment of precious jewelry to be exhibited in the city. Forty years' experience expresses the discernment with which the specimens have been chosen. Rings $20 to $1,000. Pins, Brooches and Necklaces, $10 to $500.

A SURVEY of the stocks will be of interest.

OPEN Stock Dinnerware will be exhibited on the Mezzanine floor. Porcelain sets, $40 to $60. China sets, $50 to $250. Various pieces to match may be had, when desired.

AN inclusive assortment of Ladies' and Men's watches, solid gold and gold filled cases, is noteworthy. An interesting specimen is a Military watch with silver case and unbreakable crystal, numerals visible in the darkness, $15.00. Attention is directed to Waldemar watch chains for men, solid gold and gold filled, $2.50 to $35.

TOILET Ware in Sterling silver is both useful and lasting. Specimens are in plain, hammered or chased designs.

THE Collection of Dutch silver, useful and ornamental, embraces Tea Caddies at $2.50, to large Baskets at $25. Also cigaret cases, jewel boxes, vases and roll dishes.

EXCLUSIVE designs in Portable Lamps, for boudoir and library use are exhibited at $8.50 to $40.

GORHAM Umbrellas for men and ladies and Walking Sticks are shown at moderate prices. Umbrellas, $5.00 to $16.50. Walking Sticks, $5.00 to $12.00. Mountings in Sterling and 14-karat solid gold.

CLOCKS in wide variety of sizes and designs are moderately priced. Mahogany Desk Clocks, Crystal Clocks, Chiming Hall Clocks, Waltham Mahogany Mantel Clocks—especially superior in quality, and mahogany Desk Clocks at $3.50 to $12.00, are particularly noteworthy.

The Store Will be Open in the Evenings This Week For the Inspection of the Public. Closed Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, All Day
