Army Flier in France BANANAS HAVE A New York Boy, Youngest HIGH FOOD VALUE

> Dr. Dixon Urges That More Attention Be Given to Great Tropical Fruit in War Time

People of Pennsylvania do not rec-gnize the food value of the banana, which is especially valuable in these imes when food conservation is the ig thing, declares Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, State Commissioner of Health, n a "health statement" issued here o-day. Dr. Dixon adds that if the

Dr. Dixon says:

"The banana is a tropical fruit. In its natural state it grows in great abundance and the cost is comparatively little in labor to sustain the trees. Its flavor is generally liked by man. It is nourishing as it contains one and three-tenths per cent proteins, six-tenths per cent fats, and twenty-two per cent carbohydrates, with a full value of four hundred, and forty-seven calories per pound.

"In Rio de Janeiro, South America, the forests of these tall dignified trees present an attractive sight. The leaves are not as beautiful as those of the hardwood trees of our colder climates which shed their foliage in the fall of the year and sleep until the warm sun starts the sap circulating, somewhat as the blood circulates through man's vascular system. Foliage of tropical vegetation that is exposed the entire year around to winds, hot suns, etc., is thereby faded and damaged until it is not comparable to our fresh, spring growths.

"In the tropics the fruit is left on

PEAR MISS FAIRFAN:
Ten men of variable ages have argued long and loud over a question and have been unable to reach an agreement. This being so, they have decided to submit the question to you.

Surely you are not asking this question in all seriousness. But even if you merely want a little chance to laugh, I am going to answer your letter. Love is no respecter of years, Some men start tumbling in when they are not even yet promoted to the dignity of long trousers and keep on tumbling until they sit in the chimney corner as perfect exponents of Shakespeare's seventh age. The man who falls in love lightly. Losing Amanda, he can console himself with Bettina. If she prove difficult—there's always the rest of the alphabet. Real love is, I think, unselish—less a personal craving than a desire to give happiness to the other. The woman for whom a man really cares is, the woman he wants to see happy—not the woman he begs to make him happy. If there is a girl for whom a man would be eatendered. Try

"DOING HIS BIT"

One result of the war is that the children in Europe whose fathers have gone to the front are now compelled, as soon as they are able o toddle, to do their "bit." The work, of course, is nearly always pleasant and never arduous and the youngsters quickly enter into the spirit of it.

In the above picture is shown a little shepherd boy. He is a Montenegrin. He is bringing back some sheep which wandered away from the flock and would have had no trouble at all but for the small black sheep which you will notice in the photograph. Like the proverbal black sheep, he sought new fields.

The Hungry Heart," one of David Graham Phillips' best stories, in picture-drama form will be presented at the Regent theater shortly. Pauline Frederick will play the principal role and it is said she does so charmingly. It is often said that "Art 4s jealous mistress, and will brook no rivals." FILE MANY MORTGAGES
Clerks at the office of County Recorder James E. Lentz have been kept busy during the last few days because of the large number of deeds and mortgages which are being filed as the war tax on these documents will start on Saturday. The tax will be $1 on each $1,000, and 50 cents for each additional $500. Thanks giving marriages will probably be plenty too, as thirty-five licenses have been issued at the offices during the last few days.

Seek Plan to Give Farmers

in State Needed Labor The United States Department of Commissioner A. I. Hartman was to-help specialist for Pennsylvania to devise methods of supplying farmers with adequate labor during the coming year. Mr. Myer, who has made his headquarters in the Civilian Service and Labor Department of the Pennsylvania Committee of Public Safety, South Penn Square, Philadelphia, is arranging for a statewide survey of the farm labor situation in 1918 by means of a questionnaire directed to the farmers of Pennsylvania.

Farmers will be asked to state their labor requirements, including proballility of using some inexperienced help, character of work to be done, and period during which workers are most urgently needed. An inventory of farms is contemplated which will include acreage, equipment, crop capacity, seed and fertilizer requirements and other general details valuable in indicating the agricultural possibilities for 1918. The questionnaire will be circulated through the established Farm Bureaus and with the co-operation of the public school system.

Mr. Myer aims to locate community men in the various districts who will keep in close contact with farm requirements. Those will be men who are known to the farming interests sind who have the farmers' confidence. The established Co-operative Labor Bureaus now working throughout the state under direction of the State Labor Department and the Pennsylvania Committee of Public Safety will assist in meeting labor needs.

About five years ago F caught a severe cold which settled in my bronchial tubes and on my lungs. I had the doctor, but his medicine did not seem to help me. I kept getting worse all the time. My cough became very alarming. When I would take these severe coughing spells, I would not move around; if I did, I would have one of these spells. I was ready to give up when I happened to get hold of a little booklet and read of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I made up my mind to try it, as I was about all in. I had taken about four bottles and from that time on I gained fast, for it completely restored me to good health which I am still enjoying, thanks to this medicine."—

An alarm from box 18, at 5.33 this morning, was turned in for a fire in the Weinholt home at 1719 Aprient street. When the fire companies arrived on the scene there was dense smoke pouring out of the chimney but no signs of a fire. It is thought that the fire was between the walls, and that an overheated pipe caused it. There was very little damage.

Hot Turkey Sandwich

This is the week when Turkey is king on the best tables of the land. The national bird holds a dominant place among those who like good things to eat. For the business lunch as well as the festive board, turkey is ever welcome. Our patrons will therefore be served with hot turkey sandwich and giblet sauce, Wednesday and Thursday. A delicacy that you will relish. And the price is only twenty cents.
