IN MEMORIAM IN MEMORIAM

Written in remembrance of our ar beloved mother, Mrs. Anni

Just nine years to-day have vanish Since the Savior in his love, Called our loving mother home, There to dwell with Him above.

Mother dear, we sorely miss you; You have left a vacant place; Though you fell in peaceful slumb With a smile upon your face.

Oh, how well we all remember Of the day you left our side; Many friends spoke words of comfo But our hearts were sorely tried.

What is home without you, mother? There is none can fill your place; You were always kind and gentle And we miss your smiling face. But the Lord who gave has calle you, To His will we all must bow; ou are free from pain and suffering Not a care can reach you now. Though our hearts are sad and lo

And the cross is hard to bear, May we live with this assurance That we'll meet you over there. Her daughter, MISS EMMA ESHENBAUGH.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving remembrance of our dearmether, Mrs. Catherine Deibl, who departed this life December 1, 1913.

Flowers laid upon the grave
Will wither and decay,
But the love for mother, who sleeps beneath. Will never fade away.
