

ELK MEMORIAL IS IMPRESSIVE

Brotherhood Attends in Body Wonderful Service at the Majestic Theater Charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity, the watchwords of the brotherhood of Elks were exemplified yesterday in a most impressive memorial service for the dead which took place in the Majestic theater before an audience of two thousand. The program was so attractive to the public in general that the place was crowded to the doors and it was impossible for late comers to get seats. Many turned away without attempting to be accommodated, because the doorways and lobby overflowing.

MEN WITH U. S. COLORS ARE HONORED AT MARKET SQUARE

Seventy-three Men Have Answered Nation's Call From Presbyterian Congregation

An inspiring patriotic service was held in the auditorium of the Market Square Presbyterian Church last evening on the occasion of the dedication of the service flag of the church and the unveiling of the honor roll. Special music was provided for the occasion by the church choir and added instruments. Every inch of the space in the church was occupied, many standing throughout the exercises.

The organization meeting of the Harrisburg Chapter of the National War Aid Committee, to be cosponsored entirely of women who have near relatives in United States service, will be held on Friday evening at Fanestock hall at 8 o'clock. The general committee on organization will probably be held Friday morning to complete all arrangements for this event.

Douglas Fairbanks at Regent in 'Reaching for the Moon'

At the Regent Theater to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday, Douglas Fairbanks is appearing in his greatest success, "Reaching for the Moon." It is said to be full of the old Fairbanks humor—"per" status—thrills—full of everything. At frequent intervals during the plot he has plenty of chance to risk his own neck and endanger the necks of others, after the manner his public has come to expect of him.

EXTRA FARE ON SMOKING CARS

New Orders For Philadelphia-New York Trainers; Double Seats Free

Philadelphia, Dec. 3.—Effective December 5, chairs in all club smoking cars on Pennsylvania Express trains operated between New York and Philadelphia will be reserved and additional charge will be made for parlor car passengers desiring the use of their accommodations. In making the announcement last night, the company said the action was taken as a further step toward economizing in the use of passenger car space.

MRS. DE SAULLES GIVEN HER SON; JOYOUS REUNION

Relatives of John De Saulles Give Child Into Keeping of Her Attorney

Roslyn, N. Y., Dec. 3.—A door opened early yesterday afternoon and little Jack de Saulles rushed into the room and into his mother's arms. To her it was even a greater joy than her acquittal Saturday night on the charge of having murdered her divorced husband, John Longer de Saulles. "I'm so glad to see you," said the boy, who will be 7 years old Christmas morning. "Nothing can keep us apart again."

Just previous to the Municipal Orchestra opened the services, and following it Rabbi Louis J. Haas delivered the invocation. In this he prayed for the safety of the enlisted members of the order and for early and honorable end of the war.

The opening of the lodge followed, conducted by James L. Carroll, excused, ruler. Mrs. Emma Mausert Reeves sang "Give Me Not O God," and the lodge continued the opening service, Chaplain D. D. Hammelbaugh reading the prayer. Following the singing of "These Are They" by Mrs. Lee S. Lizer, the memorial exercises were held. Secretary Charles R. Weber called the roll of the sixty deceased members and the various officials directed the purposes of the lodge as given in their ritual.

ful preparation, find themselves checkmated by the allied armies in a few short years. "The Retreat of the Germans at the Battle of Arras" gives a glimpse of the war as it really is.

Douglas Fairbanks fairly revels in the part of Alexis, a youth occupying a humble position in a nation factory until he discovered he was the missing heir to a European throne. Artcraft has been introduced with this production, which is crammed full of humorous situations and thrilling incidents. The adventures of Alexis are extremely trying, and Fairbanks is afforded ample opportunity of displaying the extraordinary athletic skill for which he is noted.

LOOKS LIKE A BROADWAY MUSICAL EXTRAVAGANZA — AND IT IS; ONLY IT'S CAMPING OUT FOR THREE DAYS AT THE MAJESTIC THEATER

"Pretty Baby," the sensational musical comedy, with Jimmie Hodges and Jean Tynes in the leading roles, which is now at the Majestic Theater to play at the Majestic this season. There are five complete and a half hours of lists in the immediate background of comedy, songs and dances, interwoven with many varied and unexpected scenes which for youth, beauty and ability Mr. Hodges, in his new offering, has rarely been eclipsed. There are five or six great points from which to view this supreme fight for the democracy of the world. Wreck, ruin, waste, desolation, these are the things one finds in the wake of retreat of the Hun, who despite all their forty years of care-
