

HICK-A-THRIFTS READY FOR BUSY BASKETBALL SEASON --- LOCUST GAP WINNER

INDEPENDENTS LOSE CONTEST

Locust Gap Gives Second Defeat to Local Five in Fast Game

The Harrisburg Independents suffered their second defeat of the season Saturday evening when they lost to the Locust Gap in a closely contested game by a score of 32 to 21.

The visitors put up the best caliber of ball witnessed on the local floor this season. Locust Gap played consistent and aggressive ball during the first half and when the whistle blew held the long end of a 21 to 6 score.

Camp Meade Champions Lose Out in Final Game; Camp Dix Eleven Wins

Philadelphia, Dec. 3.—The team representing the 311th Regiment of Infantry of the First National Army, hailing from Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J., defeated the team from Camp Meade, Admiral, Md., and representing the 17th Regiment of the First National Army in the first interdivisional championship game ever staged in the United States Saturday afternoon on Franklin Field by the score of 15 to 6.

Rosewood A. C. Wins In Game at Elizabethtown

Rosewood A. C. won out Saturday, defeating Elizabethtown quintet, score 36 to 33. The game was played at Elizabethtown. Rosewood had the upper hand in the second half, shooting thirteen goals for the home team. G. Killinger played best for the Harrisburgers. The lineup and summary:

Fink Is High Gun In Monthly Highspire Shoot

Highspire Rod and Gun Club held its monthly shoot Saturday. Harry Fink broke twenty-three targets and secured a leg on the silver trophy. Second honors were divided between H. Kline and J. Cover. The trophy won the shootoff. The lineup and summary follows:

W. C. T. U. TO MEET

Shiremansburg, Pa., Dec. 3.—The monthly meeting of the Shiremansburg W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wert, in East Main street, Tuesday evening.

"German" Unpopular Name For Hagerstown Street

Hagerstown, Md., Dec. 3.—Owing to the unpopularity of the name of Shepherdstown's principal thoroughfare—German street—citizens of that place have filed a request with Mayor Waldeck that the name be changed to Main street, or some other name. Mayor Waldeck has appointed a committee of three members of the town council to select a name for the street, and the present name will be dropped.

DICKINSON FOOTBALL TEAM COMPLETES SEASON WITHOUT DEFEAT

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 3.—The center of honor by students of the institution faculty members, alumni and residents of the town, the men of the 1917 football team at Dickinson who went through the season without sustaining a single defeat and were only twice scored upon were the red deers of general attention last week. A captain will be elected this week and plans made for the coming year, subject to change by reason of war's demands.

lose several stars who were probably last seen in action on Biddle Field Thanksgiving Day against Bucknell. W. E. (Red) Swope, captain of the eleven, variously known as "Red Driver" and "Miracle Man" was expected to call at any time to report for Y. M. C. A. war work in which he has offered his services. He has been a star on the team for two seasons and formerly played a stellar role at Susquehanna. Hyman Goldstein, the plucky field general, has an application presented for the air service of the Army and is momentarily expecting a summons for examination. Maurice Palm, who was elected captain of this year's team in 1916 is in this branch of service and is now in France. Masland, the fast tackle, is on an indefinite furlough from the Naval Reserve, completing his law course. In the above picture are the following: Top row, left to right, Lorimer, Smith, Fagan, Lehman, Dougherty, Gladhill, Robinson, Obermiller, Thompson, Walck; second row, left to right, Holloway, Shope, Huff, Brady, Yaste, Morgenthau, Youns, McAndrews (trainer); third row, left to right, Minker, Steele, Wynn, Pritchard, W. Young, Minnick, Davis, Dunn (coach); lower row, left to right, Afterbach, Sulzen, Healey, Puderbaugh, Goldstein, Rockwell, Boves, Wertacnic.

LEAGUE STARS TIE UP IN MAJOR LEAGUE BATTING RACE; ROUSH IS ONE BIG STAR

New York, Dec. 3.—Cravath and Burns are tied for hitting honors among the Phillies for the season of 1917 in the official National League batting averages. Cravath has the honor of leading the league in extra-base hits with the substantial total of ninety-seven, and the Phillies led in batting out doubles in team batting, with an average of .246.

The New Champion

The new champion, Ed J. Roush, was born in Oakland City, Ind. May 18, 1891, and is one of the youngest players to win the championship title. He started his professional career in 1912 with the Evansville, Ind. team. In 1914 he joined the Indianapolis club, and was transferred to Rockford, Ill., in 1915. In 1916 New York secured his services and he was traded over to Cincinnati in an exchange that also included Mathewson and H. V. Katz.

ON THE OFF TRAIL

So long as there's a dream to dream— So long as there's a song to sing— So long as there's a road that leads— So long as there's a goal to reach— Out and far—through mile on mile— Beyond life's narrow faiths and creeds, So long will life be worth the while.

Concerning Pinch Hitters

A citizen from a nearby precinct desires to know the status of the pinch hitting crop for the last year. "Gone, all gone, are the old familiar faces." A dependable statistician furnishes us the complete group, including all who produced a pinch hit last season, and the crop is strange.

Concerning Suffrage

(Written a matter of two years ago) If their minds are made up fully, If they're pointed for a spin, What's the good of pushing things into a curdle? Did they ever lose an argument They started out to win With only masculinity to hurdle?

There are various details about good putters.

West End Juniors Claim County Championship

The West End Juniors claimed the championship of Dauphin county, having defeated all other teams in the same class. West End was represented by one of the strongest junior teams in this part of the state. The West End team was successfully coached by "Snowball" Winters. The West End Juniors will play any team disputing the title. The lineup includes: Cronin, r. t. Spangler, l. t. Longecker, l. b. Elin, c. Harle, l. e. Wallace, l. h. b. Trotter, r. g. Fogie, f. b. Selway, l. g.

SHOT DEER IN TEN MINUTES

Gettysburg, Pa., Dec. 2.—Francis Beck was the first Gettysburg hunter to bring down a deer when the season opened yesterday. Beck was with a party in the Buchanan Valley and was out only ten minutes when he made the deadly shot of a buck with six prongs and weighing one hundred and thirty pounds. At least three other bucks were brought down during the first day.

WEDDING AT LANDISVILLE

FOOTBALL GAME INDEFINITE SPORT

Prospects For Next Season Not Very Encouraging if War Continues

Washington, Dec. 3.—Following the last game of a college football season, the next step is the election of a captain for the ensuing year. This formality concluded, the next step is the taking account of stock and the laying of plans for the conduct of the game next fall. College football is over for the year and many of the teams that have played regular schedules have chosen their new leaders and are arranging playing dates and other details for 1918.

WELLY'S CORNER

Tech's big jubilee was held to-day. At chapel the battle of last Thursday was fought over and there were many nice things to say about the victors. Two handsome trophies were added to Tech's big collection. The P. G. Diener silver football passes from Central to Tech, and the Max Reiter and Company silver trophy was presented to the victors.

BAZARS AND FESTIVALS

Marysville, Pa., Dec. 3.—Three bazars and a festival are planned for Marysville within the next two weeks. To-morrow evening the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will hold a "Pink, Puff and Blow" social and entertainment in the church.

FIREMEN TO ELECT OFFICERS

Enola, Pa., Dec. 3.—Officers for the coming year will be elected at the monthly business meeting of the Enola Fire Company No. 1 which will be held this evening at the hose works in Altman avenue. Members nominated for the various offices are:

SUGAR SCARE

Marysville, Pa., Dec. 3.—During the past week the shortage of sugar on the local market has not been relieved. Several dealers do not have an ounce of sugar for sale; others have only a scanty supply, which they are selling in small quantities to their customers only.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON

New Cumberland, Pa., Dec. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Newmyer, Bridge Street, announce the birth of a son, Friday, November 30, 1917.

Every indication points to a successful basketball season. In addition to the independent games there will be a lively competition in the Pennsylvania Interscholastic League. The Hick-A-Thrifts will be in the field with a series of league games, and Rosewood A. C. has started the season with good reports.
