

HASSETT CAGE TEAM IN GOOD SHAPE FOR FIRST GAME TONIGHT WITH LEBANON

CROSS-COUNTRY RUNNERS WORK

Annual Contest Between Tech and Harrisburg Academy Scheduled For Saturday

Cross-country runners representing the Harrisburg Academy and the Technical High school, will stage a meet Saturday covering a 3 1/2-mile course, starting at Wildwood Park and finishing at Maclay street. The first ten to finish will determine the winner. First place will count one point against the team; second place two points and so on, while the tenth man to finish will tally ten points against his team. The school with the lowest score will receive the handsome trophy offered by the Boas Jewelry store. Technical High school offers a gold medal to the first lad to finish.

Nine Academy Runners. Coach Gordon Platt will likely enter a string of nine runners who have been practicing this fall in preparation for the meet. The training received by the members of both schools will be of benefit to the runners as a preliminary to the spring track work. Coach Platt will look to Robert Stewart, Lester Sheaffer, Hollis Goodfellow, Vernon Hoffmann, Henry Michaux, Richard Rupp, Morris Swartz, Alton Marock and Harrison Randall, to win the the honors of the uptown school.

Tech Sprinters. Coach George W. Hill, Jr. will pick his runners for Tech from Glenn Stoney, J. C. Sparrow, Leon Mattek, Frank Koons, Dunkleberger, Charles Atkins, James Minick, Harry Ebert, Andrew Musser, Eckert, Fred Beecher, Victor Hear, Karl Hoffmann, Matter, Neiman, Boone, Diener, Edward Craig, George Germer, Hinkley, J. Beck, John Black, Wallace, Reed, Troup and John Paul Jones.

Both teams have fast runners in the lists, and the sprint for first place is likely to be as keen as is the race for school honors. It is likely that the event will be an annual affair.

Identify Skeleton as That of Baseball Star

Clifton Heights, Dec. 6.—The skeleton which was found on Samuel Riddle's farm, near Williamstown school, last Friday afternoon by Jack Krouse and Elmer Luken, two Media ball-players who were gunning, has been identified, it is reported, as that of William Kelly, of Clifton Heights, 50 years old. At one time he was one of the best pitchers in this section of the country. Kelly played with the Hazleton State League team some years ago and in other parts of this state. He was well known in Philadelphia in the eighties, when he pitched for the Portwando and Solar T's teams in the famous Trades League in that city. He is survived by a widow, three children and three brothers, all former ballplayers. John Riddle played with Toronto, Montreal and Baltimore clubs in the International League and St. Louis National League. Charles Riddle played in the Tri-State and State Leagues; Thomas Riddle played in semiprofessional leagues in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Kelly left his home on September 15 of last year. He had been ill and was believed to be mentally unbalanced. He evidently walked into the woods where he died.

EDDIE COLLINS IS STILL ON WAITING LIST FOR ARMY DRAFT

EDDIE COLLINS.

Once again dispatches say that Eddie Collins has enlisted in the Army. A telegram here from Chicago last night made the unqualified assertion that the White Sox star had entered the service.

The North American phoned to Eddie, at his home, in Lansdowne, last night, and asked him if the dispatch was true. "I have not enlisted," answered Collins, "and my military status is the same as The North American described it two Sundays ago."

"I am waiting to see what the next draft brings out, and until then I have nothing to say." Friends of Collins' say that it is a pretty safe bet that he will join the service.

Michigan Not Likely to Play Penn Eleven

Ann Arbor, Mich., Dec. 6.—It is more than probable that the football eleven of Michigan and Pennsylvania will not meet again next fall, although this annual game has been popular with both colleges. The announcement that University of Pennsylvania authorities are trying to substitute a game with Georgia Tech is the cause of some satisfaction here. It has been understood that Michigan hopes to play Minnesota and Ohio State next autumn and that the scheduling of these games would make a game with Pennsylvania impossible. Because of the many courtesies shown Michigan by the Red and Blue, the members of the Michigan Athletic Board of Control decided to make no official announcement until the matter was threshed out with the University of Pennsylvania officials. It is believed here that the first

CARLISLE STARS HEED WAR CALL; IN Y.M.C.A. WORK

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 6.—Two prominent figures in Carlisle athletics have just answered the war summons. William E. ("Red") Swope, star of the Dickinson football team for two years and captain of this year's unbeaten eleven, one of the most popular men to attend the local institution, has gone to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, to take up war work for the Y. M. C. A. Merton L. Clevett, for three years general director of athletics of the Carlisle Indian School, and assistant football coach, has resigned to take up Y. M. C. A. and physical training work in one of the camps to which he will be assigned by the officers of the New York headquarters.

"Capturing animals for the zoo is a much more hazardous undertaking than hunting them with a rifle."—Magazine exchange.

Shooting lions on the run
From a hundred yards away—
Think you this is risky fun?
Not a bit of it, we say;
If your courage you would show
With a nerve that doesn't fail
Grapple him without a blow—
Lead him homeward by the tail.

Groping through the jungle wild,
Shooting tigers, lit or miss,
'Tis the courage of a child
That would turn a trick like this:
Leave your gun behind and creep
Softly, with no sound of fear,
Jump upon him while asleep,
Yank him outward by the ear.

Who is it that could not hit
In the four-by-twenty head
Elephants that calmly sit
While you pepper them with lead?
But it takes a deeper spunk
On this hardy jungle tramp
When you pluck off by the trunk
And escort him back to camp.

Where's the nerve in taking aim
At a lion's conqueror's eye?
Any kid could play that game
And undoubtedly get by;
But the job's another size
When you seize and drag him through,
Handing him despite his cries,
To the keeper of the Zoo.

Our pick for all-time line breaking fullback—THE TANK.

The Canadians stood when the Germans first handed them gas at Ypres. Did the Germans stand when the English sent in their tanks? Sure. They stood with their hands up yelling "Kamerad."

GOLF MAXIM
He whose niblick works in vain
Has oft been known to grow profane.

Speaking of the Ancient Greeks in football, as we sometimes do, why leave out Truxton Hare, of the University of Pennsylvania? Here was an athlete who was a wonderful guard, a marvel on defense—who also contributed the fine line-breaking proclivities on attack, and who was one of the best punters of his time. It is not often that a man is found who is a star in three sections of the game—a wonder in three varied fields of action.

HASSETT TEAM PLAYS LEBANON

Local Season Opens Tonight at Cathedral Hall; An Added Feature

EDDIE HILTON, Now Corporal With Ammunition Truck Corps, Camp Hancock

When the Hassetts boys line up against the Lebanon Big Five at Cathedral Hall this evening the visiting team will meet the fastest aggregation that has ever represented the local school. Three last year's varsity men, Gough, El. Sourbier and Bihl will figure in the game. The remaining positions will be decided between Houston, Leedy, McCurdy and Ed. Sourbier. The Lebanon five will bring a fast bunch and will play Moore and Boyer at forward; Ganker, center, and Harpel and Walters, guards. Ganker is a well-known player in this city, having appeared frequently with the Reading Olivets. A special dance program will follow the game.

Talk on Camp Life
A feature of the evening will be the 15-minute talk between the halves by the Rev. T. B. Johnson. He will give an interesting talk on soldier life at Camp Hancock, at which place he was a recent visitor. Several of the soldier boys from Camp Hancock will be present, among them Corporal Eddie Hilton, a former Hassetts player, and Central High star athlete.

WELLY'S CORNER

Whether the baseball game will be in full blast next season is still a question. Magnates who promised to cut out the game if war was still on appear to be the most active in preparation for next season.

War or no war, this country will want baseball if it can be had. It fell short because of the big stars being in service. This sport was a big success. The national game will be possible under new rules. Those at home want amusement.

Pennsylvania railroad athletes are showing activity. All over the Pennsylvania railroad system Y. M. C. A. teams are working hard. Elimination contests are on, and Harrisburg and Enola will be factors again this year in furnishing lively sport.

According to an Associated Press dispatch entire blanks for the boys and junior indoor tennis championship tournament to be played at New York the last week in December are being distributed. The officers of the national association expect a number of entries from various parts of the East and Middle West, as the tournament will be played during the holiday recess and will not conflict with the scholastic duties of the entrants.

Hassetts athletes are ready with a big welcome for their friends tonight. The basketball lid goes off, and good sport is promised.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of governors of the Motor Club of Harrisburg will be held at the club's headquarters, 109 South Second street, on Friday, December 7, it was announced yesterday.

President Edward Barrow announced yesterday that the International League will hold its annual meeting in New York next month. At this session the club owners will decide whether or not the circuit will operate next season. There are five clubs on the circuit which are anxious to continue. These are Newark, Buffalo, Baltimore, Toronto and Providence. Richmond, Rochester and Montreal are willing to wait until the war is over.

series will soon be turned over to swell the fund for the soldiers' smokes. Smith and Ladington starred for the Second Formers in yesterday's performance while Eldridge and Hickok played well for the First Form. The lineup:
