New Auxiliaries—The approval of tracts for auxiliary forest reserves in Erie and Forest counties are the first to be arranged for those coun-ties by the State Forestry Commis-sion. The forest county auxiliaries are in two properties and will bring 2,000 acres under state control. State to Buy Bunnies—The State Game Commission officials have of-fered to buy all the rabbits that sportsmen will furnish for stocking counties where cottonatils have been vanishing lately and to improve the strain in other sections. The com-mission has been trying to buy rab-bits for stocking for some time, but has had trouble as men were unable before the foothills around Bassano are reached.
