

TECH TEACHER DIES AFTER A LONG ILLNESS

One of the First Instructors at High School Which He Helped Build Up

PROF. G. W. HAMILTON Professor George W. Hamilton, teacher of modern languages at the Technical High school, died Sunday morning at the family residence, 1925 Whitehall street. Death was caused by diabetes from which he had been suffering two years. He was 41 years old.

Mr. Hamilton was a graduate of Williamson Trade school in the class of 1897. Following the completion of the trade school he decided to pursue a classical education at Conway Hall, preparing for Dickinson college from which he graduated in the class of 1902. The following three years he spent at Ponce, Porto Rico, as an instructor in the government schools. While residing at Ponce, he made a study of the Spanish language, and became proficient in that tongue.

With the inception of the Harrisburg Technical High school, Professor Hamilton was selected as instructor of drawing in 1905, and retained the position for three years, and was one of the first four instructors in the school. He is credited with having had much to do with the early success of the school. In 1908 he was called to the position of principal of the City Trade school at Portland, Oregon, where he remained for two years. Desiring to secure employment in the East, he came to Homestead, where he was in charge of the Schwab Industrial school.

With the growth of the Technical High school, Mr. Hamilton was called back to this institution in 1912 as instructor of modern languages, a position which he retained until five weeks ago, when impaired health necessitated his discontinuing teaching.

Mr. Hamilton was a native of Upland, Delaware county, and his body will be taken to that place for burial. In addition to his wife, and 8-year-old daughter Miriam, he is survived by his parents, four brothers and one sister. The latter reside at Upland. The deceased was a member of Masons, and belonged to the Stevens Memorial Episcopal Church, of which he was an active member.

Brief funeral services will be held at the house Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker, pastor of the Stevens Memorial Church. Wednesday the body will be taken to Upland, Delaware county, where further services will be held in the afternoon and where burial will be made. Mr. Hamilton was one of the best and most popular members of the Tech faculty, and many expressions of regret were spoken to-day at the Tech school by his colleagues and students who are grieved by his untimely death.

ENOIA SCHOOLS REOPEN Enola, Pa., Dec. 10.—SCHOOLS of Enola and East Pennsboro township opened again this morning after having closed since the day preceding Thanksgiving, owing to the annual county teachers institute. The next vacation which will be given the school children will be the Christmas vacation. The vacation will start on Friday and school will be resumed again on Wednesday, December 26.

READING FOR SOLDIERS Music and magazines from the little basket in the S. S. Kresge store, have been sent to Camp Meade, Dix and Hancock. The basket was placed there by the Kresge Komrades Klub, an organization of the sales force. Above it is a nicely worded invitation to deposit music, books and magazines in the receptacle, for the soldiers.

Stomach Dead Man Still Lives

People who suffer from sour stomach, fermentation, flatulence, distension after eating and indigestion, and seek relief in large chunks of artificial digestors, are killing their stomachs by inaction just as surely as the victim of morphine is deadening and injuring beyond repair every nerve in his body. The best prescription for indigestion ever written is sold by druggists everywhere and by H. C. Kennedy and is rigidly guaranteed to build up the stomach and cure indigestion or money back. This prescription is named MI-O-NA, and is sold in small tablet form in large boxes, for only a few cents. Remember the name MI-O-NA on stomach tablets. They never fail.—Advertisement.

SORE THROAT

Colds, Coughs, Croup and Catarrh Relieved in Ten Minutes. Is your throat sore? Breathe Hyomel. Have you catarrh? Breathe Hyomel. Have you a cough? Breathe Hyomel. Have you a cold? Breathe Hyomel. Hyomel is the one treatment for all nose, throat and lung troubles. It does not contain any cocaine or morphine and all that is necessary is to breathe it through the little pocket inhaler that comes with each outfit. A complete outfit costs but little at druggists everywhere and at H. C. Kennedy's, and Hyomel is guaranteed to banish catarrh, croup, colds, sore throat and bronchitis or money back. A Hyomel inhaler lasts a lifetime and extra bottles of Hyomel can be obtained from druggists.—Advertisement.

MILLIONS OF MEN TO NEED TOBACCO IN THE TRENCHES

Now Is the Time to Aid the Smoke Fund For Fighting Yankees

There are good gifts and golden gifts and great; And gifts that show a nation's pride and care, And some that in a soldier's estimate Are made the ornament and not for wear. But here's a gift to send to Over There That only honest gratitude provokes— If you aim to really please the Sammie men over seas, SEND HIM SMOKES.

In the name of all things friendly, SEND HIM SMOKES!

There are fine gifts and gracious gifts and good, But here's a little gift of homeliness That tells a man a mate has understood.

That makes the space between a trifle less. It's like a cheering word in time of stress. A whiff of old-time fellowship and jokes. If you'll send a bit of ease to a Sammie over seas, SEND HIM SMOKES.

Two million men in uniform and 500,000 to the trenches by March next is the plan of the United States now, and many think that ten million will have to be armed before the Germans are thoroughly walloped. Whatever percentage of this number are wounded it means that more and more of soothing tobacco will be needed, and the truth is that tobacco is plenty here. The testimony is nurses, surgeons and Y. M. C. A. officials all agree in asking for contributions to supply the soldiers, wounded or not. The wounded want cigarettes more than food; the fighting man wants them more than socks. Nearly every town and hamlet in the country is holding its "smokes for soldiers" entertainment, but the individual should not wait for this opportunity. Send your contribution now; you will get a receipt from the soldier who benefits from your generosity. Send him smokes.

The following contributions have been received by the Harrisburg Telegraph's tobacco fund: Previously acknowledged $855.80 Samuel F. Haner 1.00 E. Shellhammer 1.00 Anna S. Kautz .75 Jane Eleanor Kautz .50 Total $859.05

SOLDIERS' HONOR ROLL UNVEILED

Cookman Methodist Church at Columbia Holds Interesting Patriotic Service

Columbia, Pa., Dec. 10.—Patriotic rally services were held in Cookman Methodist Church last night, with Dr. Howard G. Smoker, superintendent, in charge. Levi S. Young, assistant, conducted devotional exercises. Nathan Sleikind and Elizabeth Constantine rendered a violin duet. The honor roll was unveiled by Anna Belle MacNeal and Marion Young, of the primary department. Dr. Smoker read the roll, as follows: Sergeant Raymond Witmer, Corporal Edgar MacNeal and Private Mervin M. Young, Company F, Machine Gun Battalion, Fifty-sixth Brigade; Hiram Wakefield, M. O. T. Section No. 5, Fort Riley; Alfred C. and Robert Dunbar, Company M, Three Hundred Sixteenth Infantry; Corporal Charles E. Hook, Three Hundred Twenty-seventh Aero Squadron, Signal Service Corps; William Harold Keesey, Three Hundred Twenty-first Field Signal Battalion; Frank Breneman, passed but not assigned. The King's Daughters of the church presented a service flag, and Dr. G. W. Mark, delivered a patriotic address. A

Two Blocks Ruined in Jersey Shore by Fire; Soldier a Hero

Williamsport, Pa., Dec. 10.—With the exception of two churches and their parsonages, all the buildings in two large blocks in the business section of Jersey Shore were destroyed by fire at an early hour yesterday morning. The loss is estimated to be nearly $50,000.

One hundred persons were driven from their homes, many of them in their night clothes. All escaped in safety. Jersey Shore is grateful to Lieutenant Frederick Johnson, who leaves to-day for an army camp, for his part in stopping the spread of the flames and saving other buildings. For five hours Johnson lay on his stomach on the roof of a building pouring water by means of a garden hose, over the side of the structure, which time and time again was threatened by the advancing wall of fire. One of the worst blizzards in years was raging, several times Johnson was nearly overcome. Women then came to his aid, rubbed his stiffened limbs and revived him. In spite of the commands of the fire department officials he remained at his post until the firemen had controlled the flames. The fire was discovered at 4:30 o'clock. It is believed to have been caused by a defective fuse in the large department store owned by Robert McCullough, president of the Jersey Shore Trust Company. The McCullough store was located in the center of a block in Main street, between Smith and Wilson streets. The flames spread rapidly to buildings on both sides of the store.

GETTYSBURG HAS A FINE RECORD

College Trustees Pleased at Showing Made by Youths in U. S. Army

The winter meeting of the board of trustees of Gettysburg College was held to-day in the lecture room of Zion Lutheran Church. There was a good attendance. The Harrisburg members, namely, John F. Dapp, president of the board; Burton F. Blough, Dr. George B. Kunkel and Dr. John B. McAllister were all present. A good deal of routine business was put through. President Granville reported that the National Y. M. C. A. leaders in America have undertaken the task of raising $25,000 toward the construction of the proposed Robert Weidensall Y. M. C. A. hall on the campus of Gettysburg College. The total cost will be $50,000, including the land, the remaining $25,000 having already been practically assured. This will give Gettysburg College one of the finest, if not the very finest college Y. M. C. A. buildings in Pennsylvania. All Y. M. C. A. workers in this country are interested in this project to the name of Robert Weidensall of '61, because of the fact that fifty years he has been a planner, promoter and executor of every important phase of work undertaken by the Y. M. C. A. President Granville also reported that an isolated unused building owned by the college is being out as a hospital for convalescing soldiers. The enrollment for the year will be about eighty-five per cent. of that of last year. This occurs in the upper classes, the entering class this year being a larger than that of last year. Of the male students who enrolled when war was declared spring over twenty-five per cent now serving their country in military capacity. More than ten per cent have been appointed commissioned officers, a large portion of them from any other college in the country with the possible exception of some strictly military schools. This splendid showing very largely due to unit of Reserve Officers' Training Corps listed at Gettysburg College. War Department, the instructor in charge of Major Frank Graham, U. S. Army. Gettysburg one of the only three colleges State of Pennsylvania which been selected for this honor by the War Department. Two courses in French have been established under the direction of Prof. Barnes, Ph. D., head of the department of romance languages. The Rev. Jeremiah Zimm D. D., LL. D., class of '73, of finest college Y. M. C. A. buildings on the board of trustees.
