Military Trial For Soldier Who Threw Bayonet at Auto

Gettysburg, Dec. 11.-Fred M. Porter, the soldier who threw a bayonet into the automobile of Mil-bayonet into the automobile of Milton H. Plank, near Gettysburg, has been arrested and must face four rharges. He will have a military trial. The road was dark and the car was going about twenty-five miles an hour it could not be stopped by the driver until a few feet beyond where the guard, which was on a main highway well off the military reservation, was posted. As it passed the soldier threw his bayonet and afterward threatened to shoot Mr. Plank. The charges were not brought by the Plank party but by an officer of the Fourth Infantry, of which Porter is a member.

Rebels Disappointed
With German Offer

By Associated Press
London, Monday, Dec. 10.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Times attributes to a responsible source the statement that during the informal conversations between the Russian and German representatives at Brest-Litovsk regarding the armistice on the eastern front the Germans indicated that the following points were likely to be included in any of their peace negotiations:

"Germany to have control of the Russian wheat market for fifteen years,

"All German goods to be admit," attended to complete all arrangements for continuing the collection work after the Pennsylvania Reduction Company stops.

Electrical Bureau

An ordinance creating a city electrical bureau under the Department of Public Safety was introduced by Commissioner Morgenthaler. Commander carried out the executions as a routine affair, as he is warranted to do in time of war and only made the usual formal report which was received after the news dispatched by Commissioner Gross weeks ago suggested the change. The ordinance provides for the consolidation of the bureau of fire and police alarm and bureau of city lighting in one department in continuous mould have required the control of the city electrician. The ordinance also provides for one assistant. All the duties of the city decrician, together with the statement of the work which he shall supervise and have charge of, is included from First Page.]

"All German goods to be admitted to Russia duty free.

"No territory now occupied by the Germans to be surrendered."

The correspondent says the Bolshewik were disappointed by the reserved attitude of the German negotiators and their lack of sympathy with political idealism. Other causes contributed to their depression but it is stated they are determined to conclude an armistice at any cost if the latest appeal by the Russian commissioners to the allies falls.

Sworn Statement
Council also authorized Commissioner Gross to require each company in the city to furnish a sworn statement of the present financial condition of the company with returns of assets and liabilities of both the sinking fund and company fund. This will be done with a view to wiping out many old debts which have been standing, Mr. Gross explained. Some of these had been paid by the companies, and they will be asked to furnish a total also of all the company's money used to liquidate debts and meet deficiencies.
