

STILL STICKS TO RED CROSS TALE

Man Who Circulates Ridiculous Story Gives Dollar to Organization

Residents of Steelton claim that A. Patterson, a driver for an oil company, who tells the Red Cross sweater story insists that the story is true.

Patterson in a front street hotel in Steelton yesterday according to a witness, said that he had nothing against the Red Cross and thought they were doing good work, but thought some of the people should not be connected with it.

According to the witness he related the sweater story which varied a bit from the way he related it several weeks ago in another Steelton hotel, a witness says that Patterson, with an oath, declared that his wife had knit a sweater for a relative and turned it over to the Harrisburg Red Cross for shipment.

When a reporter asked Patterson about the matter, he said: "I have nothing to say just now; nothing to say."

Patterson gave a dollar to the Steelton Red Cross while in the hotel yesterday a canvasser for Red Cross members said this morning.

William Jennings, chairman of the Citizens' War Committee yesterday offered $100 reward to the man or woman who can give sufficient evidence convicting the agitators of these stories.

A resident of Steelton this morning said he would proceed at once to tell the story that was told him by Patterson when he asked him to contribute to the Red Cross.

TWO ENLIST R. N. Maehorn, of York Haven, and Luther Bigler, of Camp Hill, students in the Wharton School here, enlisted yesterday in the service of the United States. Bigler goes to Columbus Barracks as an accountant in the aviation section. Maehorn goes to State College to receive training in the Ordnance School, after which he will be placed in the Army Ordnance Department.

Many Come to Aid of K. of C. Fund Before Big Drive Opens For Camps

Actual campaigning for the Knights of Columbus war fund will not begin until January 3, but J. Grant Schwarz, treasurer of the Harrisburg organization, has already received $20,000 from local banks and corporations, which makes a comfortable nest egg, as it were, for the thousands to follow. The K. of C. movement, as is generally known, has the same object as that of the Y. M. C. A., the founding of war homes near the trenches and the campaign is to be interdenominational. All residents of Harrisburg will be asked to contribute by the workers who are now being trained and instructed for the task.

Cuts Rent in Two So His Tenants Can Buy Bonds

Hazleton, Pa., Dec. 11.—John Markle, of Hazleton, president of a coal company, announced a reduction of 50 per cent. in the rent of all company houses during the continuance of the war so that the employees could buy Liberty Bonds.

CHARGED WITH FRAUD C. R. VanBuskirk was arrested in Sunbury yesterday by Constable David Frazer on the charge of having defrauded a boardinghousekeeper, and was committed to jail to await a hearing by Alderman James B. DeShong. Information was lodged against VanBuskirk by Mrs. Blanche Homer, 1521 North Sixth street, who charges that he defied her house last week, owing her a bill of $17. A hearing will be given to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Geo. A. Gorgas, whom you all know is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer in this vicinity that if two bottles of Allenuhu, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment. Allenuhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless. Allenuhu relieves at once. Immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

OFFICIAL ENTRY INTO JERUSALEM

were forced to surrender. Capture of the city was delayed through the fear that fighting operations might result in the damaging of religious shrines. The deliverance of Jerusalem from the hands of the Moslems marks not only the success of General Allenby's drive into Palestine, but probably ends all Turko-German hope of cutting the Suez Canal.

Philadelphia, Dec. 11.—The news that Jerusalem, so long in possession of the Mohammedan power, had fallen to the advancing British, caused great rejoicing among religious people in this city, who see in it the prophecies of the Bible. "It is as wonderful," exclaimed the Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts, stated clerk of the Presbyterian General Assembly, "as if God's hand were moving for the fulfillment of prophecy. It is very much worth while for all Christians to meditate on the words of Jesus Christ (Luke 21:24): Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles till the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled."

The word Gentiles means there, non-Christian nations. That is my interpretation of it. "We may look for yet further events showing that the power of God is with the Turk, nor the German. The Kaiser hoped to make Jerusalem a German city. It is to be remembered that he visited it and has done all that he could to advance German interests in connection with it."

History of Jerusalem Chronologically Told

1500 B. C.—Coty founded according to E. Amarna tablets. 1048 B. C.—King David takes Jerusalem from the Jebusites and calls it Jebus. D.—Mongols overrun Syria and Palestine. 1291 A. D.—Melik el-Ashraf, son of the Sultan of Egypt, puts an end to the Frank rule in Jerusalem. 1400 A. D.—Tamerlane conquers Syria. 1540 A. D.—Syria falls into the hands of the Ebnorah power. 1847 A. D.—An affray in the Church of the Nativity in Jerusalem leads, after long negotiations between British and Turkish governments, to the signing of the Treaty of 1853-54. 1862 A. D.—Treaty to preserve the Holy Sepulchre signed by Russia, France and Turkey.

Coal Production Greatly Reduced During Blizzard

Philadelphia, Dec. 11.—Coal production was greatly reduced throughout the Pennsylvania coal fields because of the frigid temperature and unrelenting blizzard which continued to sweep various parts of the state yesterday. Trolleys and steam trains are tied up at various points while the blizzard rages. Freight traffic in the district coal shipments were the smallest in a month. Production was only thirty-seven per cent. normal and indications are that there will be a further decrease. At Bradford, a snowfall of sixteen inches is reported.

Several persons died of exposure yesterday and many others are suffering. At Shamokin, hotels, restaurants and many families were without means of cooking when the gas plant's container froze.

Mercury at Altoona Drops to Six Below

Altoona, Pa., Dec. 11.—The first victim of the city's coldest December in twenty years was James Barnes, 56, who died yesterday at a hospital of exposure. He was found half frozen on a snowbank at midnight. Temperatures in the county ranged from one to six below zero. Drifting snow has virtually closed the roads. The Pennsylvania railroad had to shut down its freight service yesterday. Several instances of suffering among the poor were brought to the attention of the poor authorities.

Six Die in Allegheny; Schools Dismissed

Pittsburgh, Dec. 11.—The entire commercial and industrial life of the Pittsburgh district was affected yesterday by the extreme cold and the gas shortage which accompanied it. Thousands of workmen in factories using gas for fuel were idle and in some instances were brought to the attention of the poor authorities. Six deaths were reported to the county coroner, and many instances of suffering among the poor were brought to the attention of the poor authorities.

Mysterious Death of Allentown German

Allentown, Pa., Dec. 11.—Coroner James Goheen and his police have started an investigation of the mysterious death of Henry Fleischman, 65, for many years prominent in Republican politics, who was found dying at his home yesterday morning, and who expired several hours later, without giving an explanation of the fatal injuries he sustained.

His face was battered almost to a pulp and his skull is believed to have been fractured. Members of the family saw Fleischman come home at 11 o'clock, but all had retired and no one saw him or talked with him. In fact, according to the story of the relatives, they had no knowledge of his injury until they heard his moans and made an investigation. The police have traced blood marks in the snow for several blocks and their theory is that Fleischman, who was of an argumentative disposition, got into a quarrel over the yard and was beaten up by loyal Americans. Fleischman was a member of several German societies, which he frequented Sundays.

Charges Against Food Dealers to Be Probed

Washington, Dec. 11.—Charges by Food Administrator Hoover that some dishonest wholesale and retail merchants and food brokers have been criminally responsible for food shortages and rising prices were taken under investigation to-day by the Federal Trade Commission. Victor Murdock will be in charge of the inquiry, which will be prosecuted with vigor and with all of the trade commission's broad investigative powers behind it.

To Name Street in Rome For President Wilson

Rome, Sunday, Dec. 9.—Strong support is being given by the press to a proposal made by several organizations to name a street of Rome after President Wilson.

Farmer's Wife Freezes to Death in Storm

Hawley, Pa., Dec. 11.—Mrs. Frank Drake, wife of a Paupack farmer, was found frozen to death yesterday at 11 o'clock along the banks of the Paupack river at Taffon, two miles from Hawley. She was 40 years of age and well known in this vicinity. The discovery was made by George Singer, of Taffon, a hunter, early Monday morning when he stumbled over the huddled form in the snow. He immediately notified local authorities, and upon consent of the coroner the body was brought to the morgue of Undertaker Teeter and immediately recognized as that of Mrs. Drake.

Mrs. Drake had been in town shopping and visiting friends Saturday, and left here late in the evening for her home with a horse and buggy. Her husband, thinking she had remained with friends, did not search for her. It is believed the horse was blinded by the snowstorm that descended upon the valley and that Mrs. Drake left the vehicle to search for a farmhouse. She became confused in the dark and fell from the Paupack river, falling in to her waist. The horse and buggy were found a short distance from the middle, and was almost exhausted. Farmers living at Taffon declared they heard several shots fired Saturday, but thought they came from a wild animal. Mrs. Drake is survived by her husband and four children.

Former County Official Found Frozen to Death

Stroudsburg, Pa., Dec. 11.—Found frozen to death on the road about a half mile from his home ex-County Commissioner Benjamin F. Miller was picked up by Charles Miller, a neighbor on a section of what is known as the Creek road above Shamokin creek which continued to drive Ed. Gallagher, had been on the road since Saturday and Sunday and it was while on his way to visit Calvert Rehoboth Saturday night that he met his death in the cold.

First Alaskan Governor Dies at Greenville Home

Oil City, Pa., Dec. 1.—James Sheakley, the first governor of the territory of Alaska and former Pennsylvania congressman, died at his home in Greenville, near here yesterday, aged 90 years. He was one of the pioneer oil men of the Western Pennsylvania field. Elected to Congress in 1874, he was one of the leaders in the Hayes-Tilden election controversy. He was appointed governor of Alaska in 1892 by President Cleveland after having served several years as one of the Alaskan commissioners.

Constable Held Up And Shot by Negro Thug

Harry Emanuel, constable of the Eighth Ward, while going down Forest street toward Seventh, was shot at 9 o'clock last night by a negro who was not been caught yet. The wound was not serious, and Emanuel walked to Alderman Shamer's office to report the shooting. The shot was preceded by a demand for the constable's money. In the flash that followed Emanuel made out that the assailant was a tall negro, wearing a slouch hat. It is thought he is a stranger here. He was pursued by the crowd that gathered when the shot was fired. When last seen he was stroking through the Capitol grounds toward Market street.
