Allentown Sends Aviation Unit of 250 Men For Improvements Under Way Will Correct Defects; War and Embargoes Blamed

What was declared by the recruiting officers to be the best bunch that has ever been sent from the city, arrived from Allentown in their special train of three cars at noon today.

Failure of the steam heat and electric light systems, throwing the city into cold and darkness last evening, were attributed by General Manager Kaltwasser to-day to a fallowdown of the York Haven Power Company.

Units from Lancaster, Reading, Shenandoah, Pottsville, Chamberliss, and numerous other cities in the district, poured in this morning until there was such a crowd of volunteers that the great unit of 250 men from Allentown was realized.

Halifax Disaster Worse Than San Francisco Quake, Says Head of Relief Work

Halifax, Dec. 11.—"From information so far received," said Mr. Moors, in charge of the Red Cross relief work in this city, "I estimate that the disaster in Halifax is more than ten times as bad as the earthquake in San Francisco."
