TIMELY NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

LATE NEWS FROM THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY EVERYBODY RED

W. C. T. U. AT MECHANICSBURG

Cumberland County Institute Convention at Washington

at the morning session and plans for future work were discussed. The speakers were Mrs. Alzuba Jones, of Johnstown, evangelist and lecturer, and Mrs. J. A. Van Kirk, of Carlisle. "Echoes From the National Convention," recently in session at Washington, D. C., was given, which included a graphic account of the reception tendered the delegates by Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, which was attended by almost seventeen hundred women, some of Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, which was attended by almost seventeen hundred women, some of whom stood in line for a period of two hours. Among the women in the receiving line were Mrs. Daniels, prominent in the work, and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, who is one of the house of the receiving line were Mrs. Daniels, prominent in the work, and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, who is one of the formal entertainment received at the capital city. Mrs. Baker, wife of the Secretary of War, sang a sole and among the visitors to the convention, bringing greetings, was Herbert Hoover.

Greetings from their country to the convention, which was the greatest in the history of the organization, were brought by representatives from China, Japan, Porto Rico, Hawisi and one from Jerusalem. Another representative was Mrs. Gertrude Bonnin, of Montana, secretary of the Society of American Indians, formerly a student and teacher at the Carlisle Indian School, who appeared in her native Indian dress. Following the convention echoes, Miss Jennie Kauffman, of Shiremanstown, spoke on "Publicity."

At the afternoon session, Mrs. J. Jillis Bell conducted devotional servit the afternoon session, Mrs. Its Bell conducted devotional serv after which many subjects wer ned.

ee evening the devotional serves conducted by the Rev. J. tell. Mrs. Wilbur Dietz sang a rith Miss Beulah Castle at the
The speaker was Mrs. Alzuba who gave an interesting ad-on "Divine Law and National

Outdoor Workers are subject to exposure to all kinds of weather, and strenuous outdoor work brings the rheumatic aches. You can't afford to be laid up, so heed that loan's Liniment. Clean and con-cenient, no need to rub, no stains, to clumsy plasters and your pain ienerous size bottles at all druggists;

Widow of Railroad Man Brings Suit For $10,000

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 11.-The stand Hears Report on National February 10, 1917, was engaged in tenant John H Heilmann, formerly of

Wedding Journey to State Grange Meeting to the catest ation tives Harans and service are and service and s

Carlisle Methodist Church

welcomed and greeted by many old friends, who entertained him while in the city.

BOX FOR DESTROYER CREW Waynesboro, Pa., Dec. 11.—Yesterday the local Red Cross branch packed a complete box and shipped it to Lieutenant Joseph Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Arnold, who is on the U-boat destroyer L-5. Lieutenant Arnold will distribute the goods among the crew of the destroyer. The contents of the box were as follows: Fifteen sweaters, twenty helmets, twenty-five pairs of all-wool stockings and twenty-five wristlets, making a total of eighty-five articles.

CHEVEN TO DESTROYER CREW Halifax, Pa., Dec. 11.—Funeral services of G. W. Westfall, who died Wednesday, were held Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. H. B. Slider, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Burial was made in the Methodist interstate commerce and was therefore not eligible for any death payment under the Pennsylvania State Compensation Law, has caused the filing by attorneys for no widow. Mrs. Florence G. requirer, was suit for $10,000 damages.

Carlisle Girl Bride of Officer at Camp Hancock

Temperance Union gathered in the Methodist Episcopal of attend the Cumberland stitute, of which Mrs. C. E., of Mechanicsburg, is suent. A conference was held trining session and plans for order discovered for engineer when with the Lindher Shoe Company, of were Mrs. Alzuba Jones, of the everagelist and lecturer. A view Kirk of Carlisies. Mrs. Heilman is well known is writted here frequently. Lieutenant Heilmann is a graduate of the Compited here frequently. Lieutenant Heilmann is a graduate of the Compited here frequently. Lieutenant Heilmann is a graduate of the Compited here frequently. Lieutenant Heilmann is a graduate of the Compited here frequently. Lieutenant Heilmann is a graduate of the Compited here frequently. Lieutenant Heilmann is a graduate of the Compited here frequently. Lieutenant Heilmann is a graduate of the Compited here frequently. Lieutenant Heilmann is a graduate of the Compited here frequently. Lieutenant Heilmann is a graduate of the Compited here in the Boot six years ago to assume a post with the Lindher Shoe Company of which his uncle, John Lindner, is president. He served on the border in the Pennsylvania National Guard, and was elected second lieutenant of Company G shortly before the mobilization for the present war.

FAILS ON HOT PIPE

Marietta, Pa., Dec. 11.—Harvey Penwell, employed at the Marietta Furnace, as the result of an accident has been off duty for several days. He was overcome with gas and fell unconscious upon a hot pipe and before he was found had a badly burned arm and side. After receiving treatment in the office he was taken home.

Unique Triple Birthday

Colaboration Near Newnort

In addition to relatives and friends of the celebrants who will be present, five generations of Mrs. Potter's relatives form a group that is attracting considerable attention. Included in this are Mrs. Potter, her daughter, Mrs. Elmira Zang; her granddaughter, Mrs. M. F. Cree; her great-granddaughter, Mrs. M. F. Lyle Fluie, and her great-grandgaughter, Miss Thelma Flurie. The latter two reside here and the others live a short distance from town.

professor H. A. Surface, former state zoologist, occupied the pulpit on Sunday morning in Allison Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, at Carlisle. A large and interested audience was present and heard a splendid discourse on "The Chief Alm in Life: Christian Helpfulness." Professor and Mrs. Surface were guests on Sunday of the Rev. Dr. J. H. Morgan, president of Dickinson College, and family.

Last week Professor Surface was at Scranton, where he was the speaker at a meeting of the Lackawanna Fruit Growers' Association. He was welcomed and greeted by many old friends, who entertained him while in the city.

CHRISTMAS FUND 872,000
Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 11.—Carlisle, here the plan of Christmas savings ub originated, will this year, in tite of the fact that war conditions terfered, be close to the record in ea amount saved in this way, accepts. They aggregate 372,000, the mount of the fund in this commutating to the found of the fund in this commutating to the fund of the fund in this commutating to the fund of the fund in this commutating to the fund of the fund in this commutating to the fund of the fund in this commutating to the fund of the fund in this commutating the fund in the fund in the confidence of the fund in this commutating the fund in the

CROSS MEMBER

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 11.—Announce- Big Drive at Mount Union to

CROSS MEMBER

Wrightsville—Zachariah G. Shoft aged 99 years, the oldest man in York county, died at his home near here yesterday. He was seldom ill during his life, and lived to see the United States engage in four warracher was refused twice from serving on account of a bad arm. He was a farmer by trade.

Mount Union, Pa., Dec. 11.—At a meeting of the Red Cross leaders of Mount Union, L. N. Crum was elected chairman of the Christmas membership drive. Plans were made to start the work December 17 and the slogan "Every man, woman and child in Mount Union a member of the Red Cross," was adopted and the committee believes the goal can be reached.

Marietta—Men illes and lived to see the United States engage in four warship on account of the weather and impassable condition of the Was a farmer by trade.

Marietta—Benjamin Epps, 67 years old, a railroad coal merchant of Millersville, died Sunday night to the teachers not being able to reach their schoolhouses.

Marietta—Daniel Cassel, aged 75 died Sunday uight at Cly, nearly opposite here, from tuberculosis, after a long illness. He was a veteran of the Civil War, and saw hard service. He had no near relatives.

Marietta—Mrs. Margaret Kline, de Red Toss, was adopted and the committee believes the goal can be reached.

Marietta—Mrs. Margaret Kline, de Red Toss, was adopted and the committee believes the goal can be reached.

bership drive. Plans were made to start the work December 17 and the slogan "Every man, woman and child in Mount Union a member of the Red Cross," was adopted and the committee believes the goal can be reached.

The membership committee includes prominent workers of Mount Union and the various towns in the southern half of the county among whom are: J. B. Agner, C. V. Hackman, W. P. Harley, L. K. Chilcoto, was man, W. P. Harley, L. K. Chilcoto, was mark, Mary McClain, Mount Union; Mrs. Newland, Mrs. Barnhart, Orbisonia; Mrs. Sommerville, Robertsdale; J. M. Harper, the Rev. C. Brush, Three Springs; Frank Brewster, Shirleysburg, and William Robinson, Blair's willis,

The publicity committee, composite here, from tuber-culosis, after a long illness. He was and shillerstown. W. C. Moore has been cleeted to succeed him.

At a meeting this week James Nounsely was elected president and J. C. Ritzman vice-president. C. T. Taylor was elected treasurer of the Civil War, and survived by a daughter, Mrs. Harry Albright, of Marietta, but lived many years at Columbia. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Harry Albright, of Marietta, Pan, Dec. 11.—The Rev. C. Stitchin, for a number of years prings; Frank Brewster, Shirleysburg, and William Robinson, Blair's Marietta Sunday ventence of the Civil War, and saw hard service. He had no near relations. He was a native of Marietta, Pan, Ber Sunday at the home of Mr. At Lame Columbia. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Harry Bowman and daughter Marietta, Pan, Dec. 11.—The Rev. C. S. Kitchin, for a number of years rector at Mount Joy, preached in Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowman spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Kline, At the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bowman and daughter Marietta, Pan, Dec. 11.—The Rev. Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Margaret, of Altoona, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellas Bair, of William Hollenbaugh, F. O. Shoema

W. Todd, T. A. Appleby, the Rev S. Cornell, C. B. Ewing, W. P

LOSES ARM IN SHREDDER Lewistown, Pa., Dec. 11.—Caugh in a whirling cylinder of a cor fodder shredder, Cloyd Swartz, age 38, of near McAllisterville, had his left arm mangled and admost torn from the elbow socket. The man was taken to the nearest doctor and almost bled to death. He has been brought to the Lewistown Hospital for treatment. The arm has been taken off at the shoulder and it is said he will recover. He is married and the father of a family. near McAllisterville, had

800 TO GET CHECKS

Annville, Pa., Dec. 11.—Eight hundred Annville people will receive savings checks next week when the Peoples Deposit Bank of Annville will send out the savings of a year. The checks range in amounts from $12.50 to over $100. Local merchants and banks will be kept busy cashing the checks.

In the five years of this savings club's existence it has grown from a newbership of 300 to over $00, and its growing each year. The 1918 club will start on Monday, December 17.

Annville, Pa., Dec. 11.—Annville School Board was reorganized by electing these officers: President, H. M., Wagner; secretary, John A. Hower; treasurer Prof. S. H. Derickson; vice-president, Z. A. Bowman. The other member of the board as M. A. Mayer.

WEDDING AT WILLOW STREET Marietta, Pa., Dec. 11.—A pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday at Willow Street when Miss Ella Mae at willow street when Miss Ella Mac Kling, was married to John A. Way-whort, of Philadelphia. The bride was an operator for the United Tele-phone Company, and the groom is a member of the 109th Infantry, sta-

w. D. Straw is the retiring member

Halifax, Pa., Dec. 11.—Borough Council on Monday evening ordered street lights placed in Second street, between Strawberry alley and Armstrong street, and between Cherry alley and Rice street, both to be eighty-candlepower lights. The one at Sixth street was ordered changed to Fifth street.

ENLISTING FOR AVIATION ENLISTING FOR AVIATION Waynesboro, Pa., Dec. 11.—That the booster meeting held last week in the Y. M. C. A. building for the purpose of aiding in the recruiting of the Franklin county aviation unit, did some good, is evidenced by the fact that eight young men of Waynesboro and surrounding section voluntarily enlisted last Saturday evening in the unit, which brings its total membership up to forty-three men.

NEW BUSINESS BLOCK
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Dec. 11.—Last evening the formal opening of the new restaurant in South Market street was held by the Misses Butorff and Bowman. The Singer Band was engaged for the occasion, but extreme cold weather changed the plans and they will play another time.

time.

Other new business room in this block, recently purchased by William P. O'Neal, are occupied by Charles Le Wolf, tailor, and the office of the Baker Engineering Company. The new block is a distinct addition to the town and increases business facilities.

MARTIN-SPENCE WEDDING
Marietta, Pa., Dec. 11.—Miss Luella M. Spence, of Lancaster, was married on Sunday night to Edward D. Martin, of New York city, by the Rev. Dr. C. E. Haupt, in the parsonage of the Grace Lutheran Church, at Lancaster. The attendants were Miss Gertrude Spence and Harry S. Spence.

MRS. ANNA HORST BURIED MRS. ANNA HORST BURIED Annville, Pa., Dec. 11.—Mrs. Annie Horst, one of the oldest residents of this section, who died at the home of her son-in-jaw. Albert Roemig, on the Steinmetz farm, after a short illness of pneumonia, was buried, on Saturday. She was aged 55 years, and is survived by three children, Mrs. Clara Roemig and Harvey Horst of Annville and Irwin Horst, of Carlisle. A number of grandchildren and great grandchildren also survive. Her husband died in 1888. Two brothers, Curtis Rudy of Annville, and John Rudy, of the south, and a sister, Mrs. Maggie Binkle, of Harrisburg, survive

Recent Deaths Occurring in Central Pennsylvania

A turkey was stolen from Henry. Fuller, at Saville, that weighted thir-ty pounds.

Mrs. Caroline Kistler has returned from a visit to her children at New York City.

York City.
William Pryor, of Harrisburg, visited his mother, Mrs. Margaret Pryor.
Joseph Livingston, John Hoover and Elmer Wert, of New Cumberland, were here on a hunting trip, being the guests of C. E. Gutshall.

HEAVY SNOW IN PERRY

Blain, Pa., Dec. 11.—This section has been in the grip of a snow bliz-

Mrs. W. H. Aspril. of Birdsboro, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. N. E. Nablet.

D. L. Potter and little son, of Lewistown, were week-end guests of his brother, H. L. Potter, and family. Homer T. Stailey, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Noblet.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bowman, ot Lancaster, are paying a visit to his father, Cornelius Bowman.

$25,000 Endowment For Lebanon Valley College
Annville, Pa., Dec. 11.—An endowment fund of at least $250,000 will be raised during the coming year for Lebanon Valley College, according to a decision of the board of trustees at a special meeting. The exact amount to be raised by supscription has not been decided, but final arrangements will be made at a meeting of representative and at a meeting of representative and at the college and the college are the college and the college are the coll scription has not been decided, but final arrangements will be made at a meeting of representatives of the East Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania and Virginia confegences at Harrisburg on December 27.' Congressman A. S. Kreider of this place was elected director of the endowment fund plan.

MILLERSTOWN

Mrs. J. E. Rounsley was a visitor at Harrisburg on Friday.

Mrs. John Brinton has returned to her home at Harrisburg after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kipp.

The Rev. C. A. Waltman, William Rounsley, W. C. Moore and Lewis Ulsh attended the annual midyear, conference of the Perry County Sunday School Association at Loysville, Miss Ella Tyson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mervin Cook, at Harrisburg. just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruft will be gene, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruft you may have.

A Simple Way To

Remove Dandruff

ner were recent visitors at hours,
A. H. Ulsh was at New Bloomfield on Thursday.
At the regular monthly meeting of the school board, James E. Rounsley was re-elected president and J.
C. Ritzman vice-president of the board. W. C. Moore was elected secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of H. W. Rinehart.

Eckman's Alterative

$2 Size $1 Size

Now $1.50 Now 80 Cts

Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia

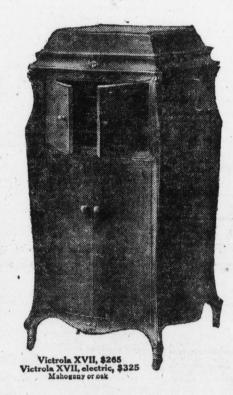

Who wouldn't be glad to get a Victrola for Christmas!

Surely your family will be delighted to have the world's greatest artists sing and play for them on Christmas morning! And you can easily give them that pleasure.

With a Victrola they can enjoy the magnificent voices of Caruso, Alda, Calvé, Culp, de Gogorza, De Luca, Farrar, Galli-Curci, Gluck, Homer, Journet, Martinelli, McCormack, Melba, Ruffo, Schumann-Heink, Scotti, Sembrich, Tetrazzini, and other famous singers. The exquisite art of Elman, Paderewski, Powell, Zimbalist, and other renowned instrumentalists. The greatest orchestras. The greatest bands. The greatest comedians. What a splendid Christmas that will be!

$20 to $400

Victor dealers everywhere. Ask your nearest dealer for demonstration.

Victor Supremacy

The W. B. Schleisner Stores

One of the Most Satisfactory and Appreciative Gifts You Can Give Is

28, 30, 32 N. Third Street

A Wm. B. Schleisner Bond

It takes the place of a gift article and is good for the amount you designate, at any time the bond is brought here.

If you have some person to whom you wish to give something especially appropriate and useful but do not seem quite able to make up your mind what to give, the Wm. B. Schleisner Bond will admirably take the place of the article-and the recipient may come here and select something from our ¶ Schleisner merchandise is the gift of merit and fashion, and is always ap-