PATRIOTIC FILM IS BEING SHOWN

"For the Freedom of the World," at Colonial For Three Days

"For the Freedom of the World," Ira M. Lowry's magnificent photospectacle being shown to-day, to-morrow and Friday at the Colonial Theater to raise a fund for the Harrisburg Chapter. Daughters of 1917, National War Aid, is one of the greatest and most timely patriotic motion picture films ever produced, according to those who have seen it.

At a time when the entire group of civilized mations is engaged in making the world safe for democracy; when virtually every home everywher is feeling the pinh of war and the world safe for democracy; when virtually every home everywher is feeling the pinh of war and to this drama is universal. It is not a propaganda picture filled with sordid scenes of battle and barbarism, but the story it tells is one of absorbing interest quite apart from any other appeal. At the same time it is an educational feature of the highest order.

It shows the whole possible career order.

It shows the whole possible career of that son of the family who enlists in the service of his country, from the concentration camp to front; it shows the work of the Red Cross nurse; the life in the trenches, and the other details of the vast war machine, presented with all the vividness of the motion pictures and the verity of actual happening.

Regarded as a feature, it presents on the screen some of the most powerful battle scenes ever recorded. The "Love o' Mike," "caught "Love o' mike," "caught "Love o' mike," "caught "Son and during the early weeks of the current season, has demonstrated there is a wide and distinct appreciation of dainty and refined presentation, charming and youthful comediennes and tingling and melodious music. "Love o' Mike" is said to be full of the spirit of youth, the majority of, the members of a houseparty-of young people, the girls having formed a strong attachment for a British nobleman, with their young admirers planning to destroy this infatuation and do so successfully. Numerous songs, dancing and ensemble numbers and a decidedly comic butler constitute the interest in this musical play. "Love o' Mike" was written by Harry B. Smith and Jerome Kern, who have contributed such notable works as "Robin Hood," "Oh Boy." "Very Good Eddie," and many other musical pleces to the American stage. "Love o' Mike" will be presented at the Orpheum to-night.

Harry Lauder, the famous comedian, who is making his farewell tour of this country, and who will be seen at the Orpheum Christmas Day, matinee and night, made his first appearance as an actor in the legitimate last season. He played the role of Georgie Pow in Graham Moffatt's "A Scrape o' the Pen," at the Comedy Theater, London, for one performance, in the aid of the British Red Cross, Georgie Pow is a character something like that in Lauder's song of "The Saftest o' the Family," and, according to press reports of the performance, Harry acquitted himself with all of the skill of an actor trained in that work. He studied the part while he was ill in a private hospital—a "nursing home," London calls it—and he

The pleasant taste of this famous 50-year old remedy is one reason for its remarkable success. The kiddies like it, ask for it, and it does them good. Slightly laxative, too, and keeps them in good condition. Keep it in your medicine closet and give it to the kiddies for all forms of coughs, colds and croup. Just as effective for old folks, too, especially for grippe.

SIMPLE AND DISTINCTIVE.

The design of this frock is very simple and the details are added to make it distingue. The two-piece skirt is gathered at the sides and plaited in panel effect back and front. Narrow bands of nutir edge the tunic and trim the coilar and cuffs. Extensions which excess in front and button to the belt give a new line to the collar. The waist is sleeveless, being mounted on a lining of silk or other material. In medium size the design requires 5%, yards 48-inch material, with 5.yards of fur banding.
