SPORTS BOOM IN FRANCE AMONG ALLIED SOLDIERS

many games, but soccer football seems the most popular. The American soldiers are picking up this game rapidly, and they play interesting and close contests, before many thousands of spectators, against French and British combinations.

"Instead of killing sport, this war is going to boost every outdoor pastime worth playing. Athletic competition is the diversion of the millions of men back of the firing line, and sports undoubtedly are a great aid to the men in the trenches and those going over the top."

Fireplug Question Ready For West Fairview Council

West Fairview, Pa., Dec. 12.—One of the important topics to face the new borough council at the first meeting in next year will be the installation of a fireplug at First avenue. This matter was brought up at the last meeting of council but was voted down.

In discussing hold-over championship titles through the war, did it ever occur to you, Gentle Reader, how many of the Under Dogs emerged for the long term of office?

POLO FIRST Great Britain, having been beaten, made an ineffectual counter charge. It began to look as if our Uncle Sam was to reign supreme, when Britain made a last assault in the summer of 1914 and regained the polo top.

THEN TENNIS Then came America's lawn tennis overthrow for possession of the Davis Cup. In 1914 Maurice McLoughlin made his last brilliant stand to hold the trophy, overpowering Brookes and Wilding in succession.

EVANS AND GOLF Chick Evans also came from behind in golf, just in time to land the hold-over title. Chick had never won an open or an amateur championship up to 1916.

ONE ANSWER If any one desires to know when you think the war will end, you can't possibly do better than to quote from Colonel Khayyam: "Earth could not answer, nor the Seas that mourn. In flowing purple, of their Lord forlorn; Nor rolling Heaven, with all his signs revealed, And hidden by the sleeve of Night and Morn."

WHO KNOWS? Dear sir—Don't you believe that an all-Yale football team of all time could beat an all star, all time pick from any other university or college? Figure it out—Heffelfinger, Glass, Hogan, Gordon Brown, Holt, Hinkey, Shevlin, Coy, Chadwick, Butterworth, etc. Who could beat this array or show as many stars? ELL 15

STORE OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS, BEGINNING THIS EVENING

A Rousing War Time Sale of High Grade Clothes For Men and Boys

Begins Tomorrow, Thursday, Morning At 8.30

This is not a special purchase for sale purpose—no season-end accumulation of odd sizes and left over stocks—nor an assemblage of clothes of slipshod tailoring.

But on the contrary it is a disposal sale of our regular high grade stocks purchased many months ago in anticipation of the greatest season in the history of the country.

Weather conditions have been very unseasonable and the men who have enlisted have no use for civilian clothes, and despite the ever increasing prices of wools we offer men of Harrisburg and vicinity without doubt the greatest and most unusual clothing values of the year.
