Anti-Bolsheviki Leaders Will Be Suppressed

Petrograd, Tuesday, Dec. 11.—The constitutional democratic party will not be permitted to get control of the constituent assembly by the Bolsheviki, according to a statement issued by the official news bureau.

"In the event of a majority of the constituent assembly not being in favor of the Workmen's and Soldiers' Councils," the statement says, "it is proposed to exclude the constitutional democrats who are frankly to un it er-revolutionary and who should not meddle with the work of organization and to hold re-elections in view of the suborning of electoral committees in many places by the constitutional democrats.

"In any case the masses will only support a constituent assembly whose members guarantee them land, peace and liberty. The commissaries will not hand over power which has been entrusted to them by the congress of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates to an assembly which will overrule the will of the people.

"The demonstration with the Petrograd, Tuesday, Dec. 11.-The people.

"The demonstration with the watchword 'all power to the constituent assembly' organized by the constitutional democrats, Minimalists and Social Revolutionists will in no way alter the situation. All power remains in the hands of the soldiers and peasants and those who defend and peasants and those who their interests."

The Bolsheviki intend to compel the constituent assembly to be subservient to them, says the Petrograd correspondent of the Times. He quotes the Pravda, the Bolsheviki crawling.

REGE that law will be compelled to submit by force."

Petrograd, Dec. 12.—The Bolshevik's government issued a decree ordering the arrest and trial by revolutionary tribunals of the leaders of the constitutional democratic party assisting the counter revolution. The decree also orders the local Workmen's and Soldiers' Councils to take steps against the constitutional democratic organization in view of its relations with Generals Kaledines and Korniloff.

BIG MASSED ATTACK BY TEUTONS REPULSED

the German artillery has been active but no attacks have developed. The heavy enemy bombardment continue in the Champagne region east of Rheims. A German surprise attack against French positions near Courcy, in this region, was without result. Northeast of Verdun the heavy artillery battle goes on without cessation.

Weather conditions on the Italian front are becoming more favorable to the defenders of the Venetian plains. Snow is falling and the Italians hope this aid will help in hampering the offensive efforts of the Austro-Germans. Between the Brenta and the Plave the enemy attacked as the snow began to fall and gained several small hill positions. In counterattacks the Italians regained the lost ground.

British shipping losses last week show an increase over the previous week. Twenty-one vessels were lost through mines and sabmannes, according to the latest report while 17 were sunk the week before. There was a decrease in the number of ships of more than 1,600 tons, however, the total for the past week being 14, a reduction of two. The number of ships attacked unsuccessfully reached eleven, the highest figure in several weeks.

Tuesday evening. Additional contri-butions are pouring into the homes of the various officers of the organization, and a complete report will be made to-morrow of the grand total. Autographed copies of "When the Prussians Came to Poland," by the Countess Turczynowicz, are on sale at Red Cross membership campaign headquarters, 214 Market street.
