CUMBERLAND VALLEY RED CROSS WORK

TEN SOLDIERS ON HONOR ROLL

Men and Women Will Canvass Entire Central County District This Week

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 17.—Yesterday the Red Cross drive for new members got formally under way in the central Cumberland county district, when the summons for new members was sounded from every pulpit in the district.

Today the active canvass was begun. Headquarters have been opened here with women of the local chapter in charge, but practically all of the work in the securing of the 5,000 new members asked by the Carlisle Chapter and auxiliaries will be done by men.

Harry R. McCartney, former county treasurer, and now executive manager of a local newspaper, is at the head of the work. E. S. Kronenberg and W. H. Goodyear, both of Carlisle, are each in charge of one-half of the district.

The Christmas Eve demonstration here will be combined with the community Christmas tree exercises as the culminating feature of the drive.

John S. Hinkel Dies

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Dec. 17.—After a long illness of kidney trouble, John S. Hinkel died yesterday morning at his home, 212 East Main street, at the age of 49 years.

During the Spanish-American War, while not an enlisted man he was private messenger for Colonel Pulliam in Porto Rico, after which he held a Government position on the island, remaining there for a period of twenty-seven months, after which he came to Mechanicsburg.

Mr. Hinkel is survived by his wife, two brothers and one sister, as follows: J. K. Hinkel, Isaac G. Hinkel and Mrs. E. L. Stansfield, all of Mechanicsburg.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Dr. H. N. Peizer, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, burial to be made in Mechanicsburg Cemetery.

MILLIONS USE IT TO STOP A COLD

"Pape's Cold Compound" ends severe colds or grippe in few hours.

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe, misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and sniffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store.
