An Extraordinary Selling Event Great Pre-Christmas Reduction Sale

The exigencies of the season prompts us to inaugurate the most unusual trade movement we believe ever heralded by a mercantile house at this particular time.

It's a once-in-a-lifetime surpassing bargain event that will deluge the community with mighty underselling.

—This extraordinary sale is brought about by reason of our desire to lessen quantity of stocks on hand.

—In preparation for the winter months we bought and contracted long ago for huge stocks of merchandise in order to procure the lowest prices—and by this heavy buying for advance needs we naturally stocked up in excess of our present requirements.

—And now—instead of waiting for after the holidays to turn a great portion of this surplus stock into cash, we take the reductions and give you the opportunity to save on every requirement—merchandise for personal use—for the home—and for the great buying of Christmas gifts.

—Grasp this opportunity; you can't afford to neglect the saving chances. Prices will greet you that you never dreamed would be offered until the very end of the Winter months

Don't Forget the Candy and Nuts
