DRIVE FOR 100 PER CENT.

Mount Union, Pa., Dec. 18.—This town started a real Red Cross drive to-day with 100 per cent, as the aim. By to-night it is expected over half the town will be enrolled. The high school team claims that they will get every member of the high school and they will for they have the most patriotic bunch in the state, as it will be remembered they enrolled about 100 boys in the Y. M. C. A. drive.

Circulars used in the Mount Union campaign show originality and could be used by every school in the state as a Red Cross lesson. Superintendent U. P. Harley, of the public schools, one of the big leaders in the war work of Huntingdon county, prepared the circular.

WANTED NICKELS FOR PENNIES

Sunbury, Pa., Dec. 18.—A party of ten foreigners enroute for Shamokin applied at a local railroad ticket office for tickets to Shamokin. They cost 45 cents and each tendered $1. They were given 50 cents change and then asked by the ticket clerk for one cent more apiece. When it was forthcoming each was given a five cent piece in return. After a conference they returned with ten more one cent pieces and demanded that they be given a nickel for each.

CONTRACT FOR 200,000 SHIRTS

Sunbury, Pa., Dec. 18.—The West Branch Knitting Company, of Milltown, to-day was awarded a contract for 200,000 undershirts for the marine corps. This is the fifth contract received for the government by the concern. They total 1,250,000 pieces.

COMBINE PRAYER MEETINGS

Sunbury, Pa., Dec. 18.—In order to save coal, Lewistown's six churches will hold union midweek prayer meetings during the winter.

CHOIR TO SING "CHRIST CHILD"

Lewistown, Pa., Dec. 18.—Zion Lutheran Church choir will sing the sacred cantata, "The Christ Child" by Hawley, on Saturday evening, December 23. The following chorists will take part: Sopranos, Misses Helen Shope, Esther Hummel, Alice Suggert and Mrs. J. R. Martz; contraltos, Misses Maude Baker, Barbara Hummel, Catharine Crist, Sara J. Fox; tenors, Carroll Light, George Karmany, John Delmire, Robert Fox, basses, Richard Easton, Thomas Miltman, Walter Webber; organist, Miss Katharine Conrad.

PASSENGER TRAIN SNOWBOUND

Blain, Pa., Dec. 18.—Friday the Newport and Sherman's Valley Railroad passenger train was snowbound, making only a stop at New Germantown to Newport and return. The greatest delay was caused at the valley road near New Bloomfield Junction, where the train stuck in a six-foot drift which had to be shoveled out by the workmen that accompanied the train. It arrived in Newport about noon.

WANT NAMES OF SOLDIERS

Blain, Pa., Dec. 18.—The executive committee of the local Red Cross Auxiliary are making every effort to get the names and addresses of all the soldiers who enlisted or were drafted from this section, in order to send each one a Christmas package. A number of the packages were prepared on Saturday by members of the auxiliary at the headquarters rooms and mailed to the boys whose addresses have been learned.

"Over the Top" Slogan on Sabbath School Poster

Liverpool, Pa., Dec. 18.—"Over the Top" is the slogan of an up-to-date and snappy Sunday school poster which is being used by the Perry County Sabbath School Association to advertise their county tour which will be made by a state Sunday school specialist, W. R. Reel, of Philadelphia, January 10 to 18, inclusive.

Sunday, January 13, is the date for the Liverpool meeting which will be held in the Lutheran church at 9:30 a. m. All the Sunday schools of the town will unite on that day for services and W. R. Reel will speak on "The Greatest Business in the World."

MISS DAGLE HOSTESS

Middleburg, Pa., Dec. 17.—On Saturday the C. Sharp Club was entertained at the home of Miss Edna Dagle. A musical program was rendered, and refreshments served. The following were present: Misses Beulah Rathfon, Doris Wagenseller, Gladys Willis, Mary Ritter, Grace Snyder, Miriam Herman, Mary Gouger, Mildred Snyder, Miriam Hackett and Joseph Hapano.

DIAMONDS FOR GIFTS

DIAMONDS are purchased at this establishment under the most satisfactory conditions. The implicit confidence, which it is quite necessary that you have in the concern from whom you buy diamonds, may well be imposed in THE HOUSE OF BOAS, whose career dates back to 1850.

Of the 67 years of business building, engaging the thought and activities of four generations, bound to the ideals and ethics laid down by the founder of the business, Mr. C. Ross Boas, present senior member of the firm, has devoted 40 years to the selection and study of Diamonds.

The collections of Diamonds, unset, and Diamond Jewelry, is said to be the finest and most extraordinary to be found in this section of the state. In quality, both cutting and perfection of stone are of first consideration.

Bearing in mind the foregoing one must readily understand it is not only safe, but economical to purchase Diamonds here.
